Revised Nondiscrimination and Harassment Policies

1. By March 14, 2015, the University will review and revise, as necessary, its nondiscrimination and harassment policies, practices, and procedures (hereafter nondiscrimination policies and procedures) to ensure they adequately address and provide the University sufficient options for responding promptly and appropriately to incidents of discrimination and harassment, and retaliation for engaging in protected activities at fieldwork practicums and internship sites. Nothing in this section prohibits the policy from allowing for an initial resolution process for informal resolution short of full formal investigation so long as: (i) the student retains the right to reject the initial resolution process in favor of investigation; and (ii) the initial resolution process shall not be applied to any allegations involving sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking;

   b. examples of the type of conduct and behavior that is covered by the nondiscrimination policies and procedures;

   c. identification of University approved fieldwork practicums and internships as sites where prohibited conduct may occur;

OCR acknowledges that in the event of such reinstatement, Complainant’s ability to engage with a new internship site by the quarter beginning July 2015 would be contingent upon Complainant locating a new site meeting the Complainant’s and University’s approval through its standard processes.

REPORTING REQUIREMENT: By May 8, 2015, the University will provide OCR with documentation demonstrating implementation of item #4, including but not limited to a written statement of findings issued as a result of the investigation into the circumstances surrounding the Complainant’s internship at the Salvation Army Adult Rehabilitation, New Beginnings Counseling Center in Denver Colorado between January 6, 2014 and January 26, 2014.
