

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR CIVIL RIGHTS

OCT 21 1985

Dr. Shlomo M. Teichman
President
Beth Jacob Hebrew Teachers College
Bais Yaakov Academy
1213 Elm Avenue
Brooklyn, New York 11230

Dear President Teichman:

The Office for Civil Rights of the Department of Education (OCR/ED) has reviewed your response to OCR's letter dated September 20, 1985, which requested additional information regarding the institution's (Beth Jacob Hebrew Teachers College - Bais Yaakov Academy) request for a religious exemption from Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Based on information provided by the institution, OCR has determined that your institution need not have applied for a religious exemption. The reasons for our determination are discussed below.

Subpart C (in effect, 34 C.F.R. §§ 106.21, 106.22 and 106.23) of the Title IX regulation (copy enclosed) prohibits discrimination in the admission and recruitment of students. Section 106.15 of the Title IX regulation specifically exempts private elementary, secondary and undergraduate institutions from compliance with Subpart C.

In your letter, dated October 9, 1985, you indicated that religious tenets "require us to admit only female students." Based on this practice, you requested a religious exemption for 34 C.F.R. § 106.21 (admission), § 106.22 (preference in admission) and § 106.23 (recruitment of students). OCR has determined, through contacts with the institution, that the College offers only undergraduate level programs. Under § 106.15, the College, a private institution offering undergraduate level programs only, is already exempt from the admission and recruitment provisions of the Title IX regulation.

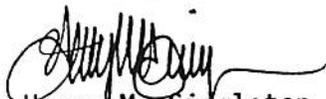

The statutory exemption from the admission and recruitment provisions of Subpart C does not relieve the institution of its obligation to comply with the regulation as it relates to graduate or other programs. Should there be conflicts in this regard, it would be necessary to request exemption from specific provisions of the regulation which are deemed to be inconsistent with certain tenets of your religion.

If you determine that your institution does not need a religious exemption for graduate or other programs, please note your wish to withdraw the request so that OCR may close your request file. Otherwise, if we do not hear from you within 60 days, OCR will assume that your institution has no need for a religious exemption and will close your request file. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the New York Regional Office for Civil Rights. The address is:
