Re: Supplemental Request for Religious Exemption from Certain Applications of Title IX

Dear Ms. Lhamon:

This letter supplements Bob Jones University's April 1, 2016, Request for Religious Exemption from Certain Applications of Title IX. The purpose of this supplemental request is to supplement, expand, and clarify the scope of that exemption request. Nothing herein should be construed as rescinding or withdrawing the specific provisions of that request.

I hereby request, under 20 U.S.C. § 1681(a)(3) and 34 C.F.R. § 106.12, that the Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights acknowledge that Bob Jones University is exempt from Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its accompanying regulations, to the extent that they are interpreted to curtail the University's freedom to act in accordance with its religious convictions. As president of Bob Jones University, I am the "highest ranking official of the institution," 34 C.F.R. § 106.12(b), and thus qualified to seek these exemptions.

As stated in the April 1 request, and unchanged since that time, BJU is completely controlled by a religious organization: its Board of Trustees.¹ All board members are like-minded Christians who are required annually to read and indicate consent to the University Creed, which states as follows:

¹ Bob Jones University Policy Manual, Vol. I, Bylaws, Article III, Section 1, p.8; Bob Jones University Policy Manual, Volume I, Section 1.5.2.1, p.35.

The general nature and object of the corporation shall be to conduct an institution of learning for the general education of youth in the essentials of culture and in the arts and sciences, giving special emphasis to the Christian religion and the ethics revealed in the Holy Scriptures, combating all atheistic, agnostic, pagan, and so-called scientific adulterations of the Gospel, unqualifiedly affirming and teaching the inspiration of the Bible (both the Old and the New Testaments); the creation of man by the direct act of God; the incarnation and virgin birth of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ; His identification as the Son of God; His vicarious atonement for the sins of mankind by the shedding of His blood on the cross; the resurrection of His body from the tomb; His power to save men from sin; the new birth through the regeneration by the Holy Spirit; and the gift of eternal life by the grace of God. This charter shall never be amended, modified, altered or changed as to the provisions hereinbefore set forth.²

At each annual board meeting, all members are required³ to read and indicate consent to the general objectives of the University as set forth in the bylaws and charter,⁴ the University's philosophy of education statement,⁵ and the Creed (copies of which are enclosed). Every member of the Board is required to indicate that they have read the Board Handbook and Bylaws and are in agreement with them.⁶ Board members who can no longer agree to these items disqualify themselves from membership.⁷

Additionally, BJU serves a particular constituency of independent, fundamental churches, and its mission is, in part, to develop individuals who are "engaged in service and leadership in a biblically faithful local church."

Not only does the University rely on and require all members of its governing board to affirm the University Creed, it also requires its faculty to do so as well, since the creed is foundational to all that it does, including what is taught in its classes.⁸ The Board of Trustees and the University submit themselves to the Bible and to these expressions of its doctrine and seek to take positions that are in accord with those standards.

The Bob Jones University policy manual cites the passages of Holy Scripture that set forth the criteria for ordained preachers and pastoral leadership.⁹ Those passages reveal that ordained preachers and pastoral leaders must be male.¹⁰ Therefore, it is the University's sincerely held religious belief that only males may be ordained to the preaching and pastoral leadership ministry.

Because the University believes that only males may be ordained to these ministries:

- 1) it admits only males to any program whose stated purpose is to prepare for a preaching or pastoral leadership ministry (such as, but not limited to, the Master of Ministry and Doctor of Ministry);
- 2) it admits only males to any course whose stated purpose is to prepare for a preaching or pastoral leadership ministry (such as, but not limited to, homiletics, church administration, and pastoral leadership);
- 3) only males may participate in those programs and courses, or any derivative or ancillary activities; and
- 4) it employs only males to instruct and train those in programs or courses the purpose of which is to prepare for a preaching or pastoral leadership ministry.

Because only males are admitted to preaching and pastoral leadership ministry programs and courses:

- 1) scholarships, if any, specifically designed to assist those in such preaching and pastoral leadership programs and courses are available only to males;
- 2) the University recruits only males to those programs and/or courses; and
- 3) the University does not provide employment or job placement services, career counseling, or networking services for females in any preaching or pastoral leadership ministries, nor does it directly or indirectly assist any person or organization to do so.

Based upon the University's sincerely held belief that only males may be ordained to the preaching and pastoral ministry, BJU requests, under 20 U.S.C. § 1681(a)(3) and 34 C.F.R. § 106.12, that the Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights acknowledge that BJU is exempt from Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and the following implementing
