

NOTE TO HOLY FAMILY COLLEGE TITLE IX RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION REQUEST FILE

The case file does not contain a request for religious exemption. The institution indicated that it did not receive Federal financial assistance. The regional office could not confirm that the institution received financial assistance. Headquarters determined that the institution does not receive student financial assistance through the alternate disbursement program. Based on these facts, i.e., no request and no Federal financial assistance, the case file was officially closed June 6, 1985.
