

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR CIVIL RIGHTS

OCT 25 1985

Rabbi Shlomo Goldman
Dean
Mesivta Sanz of Hudson County
3400 New York Avenue
Union City, New Jersey 07087

Dear Rabbi Goldman:

The Office for Civil Rights of the Department of Education (OCR/ED) recently requested additional information regarding Mesivta Sanz of Hudson County's (formerly, the Rabbinical College of Sanz in Brooklyn, New York) request for a religious exemption from Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972.

In your response, which supplements the original exemption request, you describe certain policies practiced at Mesivta Sanz of Hudson County (Mesivta Sanz) as consistent with the tenets of the religious organization that controls the institution. These policies would violate certain sections of the regulation implementing Title IX (copy enclosed) absent a religious exemption. Mesivta Sanz has provided information that establishes that the institution is controlled by a religious organization and that practices based on tenets followed by this organization conflict with specific sections of the Title IX regulation. Therefore, I am granting Mesivta Sanz an exemption to those sections of the Title IX regulation specified in your October 10, 1985, letter. The exemption is limited to the extent that compliance with the Title IX regulation conflicts with the religious tenets followed by the institution. Mesivta Sanz of Hudson County is hereby exempted from the requirements of the following sections of the Title IX regulation: 34 C.F.R. §§ 106.21, 106.22, 106.23, 106.51, 106.52, 106.53, 106.55 and 106.59. The basis for our decision to grant this exemption is discussed in further detail below.

The original request letter indicated that Mesivta Sanz is "controlled, conducted and operated by the Orthodox Jewish religion." This relationship between Orthodox Judaism and Mesivta Sanz adequately establishes that Mesivta Sanz of Hudson County is controlled by a religious organization as is required for consideration for exemption under § 106.12 of the Title IX regulation.

In your October 10 letter, you stated that religious tenets "require us to admit only male students and to hire only male faculty." Based on these practices, Mesivta Sanz of Hudson County has requested and is granted by this letter exemption to: 34 C.F.R. § 106.21 (admission), § 106.22 (preference in admission), § 106.23 (recruitment of students), § 106.51 (employment), § 106.52 (employment criteria), § 106.53 (recruitment of employees), § 106.55 (job classification and structure) and § 106.59 (advertising).

This letter should not be construed to grant exemption from any section of the Title IX regulation not specifically mentioned. In the event that OCR receives a complaint against your institution, we are obligated to determine initially whether the allegations fall within the exemption herein granted. Also, in the unlikely event that a complainant alleges that the practices followed by the institution are not based on the religious tenets of the controlling organization, OCR is obligated to contact the controlling organization to verify those tenets. If the organization provides an interpretation of tenets that has a different practical impact than that described by the institution, or if the organization denies that it controls the institution, this exemption will be rescinded.

I hope this letter responds fully to your request. I regret the inordinate delay in responding to the original request. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the New York Regional Office for Civil Rights. The address is:
