Utah

Question Number	Issue Description
1.6.3.6.4	The percentage of monitored former limited English proficient students achieving results in science in SY2015-16 is significantly less than the prior year (45.8% compared to 65.5%). No explanation was provided for the decrease.
1.6.6.1	Nevada reported a significant increase in the estimated number of additional certified/licenses teachers that will be needed for Title III language instruction educational programs in the next 5 years. The state explained that the increase is due to the reporting of one district.
