DEPARTMENT OF
HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

August 24, 1956

Dr. Jay W. Miller
Chairman, Accrediting Commission for Business Schools
Goldey Beacom School of Business
10th and Jefferson Streets
Wilmington 99, Delaware

Dear Dr. Miller:

This is to advise you concerning action on the application of the Accrediting Commission for Business Schools for designation by the Commission of Education as a "nationally recognized accrediting agency or association" within the meaning of Section 253 of Public Law 550, 82nd Congress.

The application presented by your Commission has been carefully reviewed in the light of criteria published by the Office in the Federal Register of October 4, 1952, as conditions precedent to such recognition. On the basis of the foregoing review, the Accrediting Commission for Business Schools has been approved as a "nationally recognized accrediting" body, and will be included in the list published by the Office of Education under Section 253. Following this designation, accreditations by the Accrediting Commission for Business Schools may be recognized by the State Approving Agencies under Section 253 (a) (1) of Public Law 550, 82nd Congress.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) S. M. Brownell
Commissioner of Education
