Dear Ms. Young:

Subject: Intent to Bar Hearing Notice – Jack Massimino, Chief Executive Officer, Corinthian Colleges, Inc.

We have received the letter sent on behalf of Mr. Jack Massimino dated September 4, 2015 indicating the intention to challenge the Council's intent to bar action. Mr. Massimino may challenge the Council action in writing or through an in-person hearing. If the decision is to challenge the intent to bar action at an in-person hearing at the Council's next scheduled meeting in December 2015, there is an in-person hearing fee of $5000 which must be received within ten days of receipt of this notice. Upon receipt of the fee, a separate communication will be sent with the date and time of the hearing as well as the panel of commissioners assigned to the hearing.

Whether the decision is to challenge the intent to bar action in writing or in person, the Council requires further information to address the concerns detailed in this letter. The additional information is due to the Council no later than November 6, 2015. Please submit eight copies of the response in a well-organized, tabbed and bound paper format, as well as an electronic version. All documents must be legibly copied, and translations must be provided for any documents not originally written in English. The Council will not consider any information submitted after the response date unless the institution can show that the information was not available and could not reasonably have been submitted before this date.

Intent to Bar Action

Pursuant to Section 2-2-300, "[i]n all instances of termination of activity at either main or nonmain campuses, ACICS must be assured that provision is made for presently enrolled students to complete the program of instruction for which they have enrolled, either at that institution or at another acceptable institution." In cases where campuses do not comply with this provision, the Council may, pursuant to Section 2-3-1000, bar a person from being an owner, senior administrator, or governing board member of an ACICS-accredited institution.

Intent to Bar Hearing Notice – Jack Massimino

The following is a description of the specific reasons that Corinthian Colleges, Inc. did not meet Section 2-2-300 of the Accreditation Criteria:

- The 4 campuses listed below did not complete an appropriate teach-out plan that provided an appropriate outcome for each student:
 - Everest Institute, Rochester, New York, ID Code 00010216(MC)
 - Everest College, San Bernardino, California, ID Code 00010397(MC)
 - Everest College, Santa Ana, California, ID Code 00032431(BC)
 - Everest College, Ontario, California, ID Code 00019026(BC)
- The Council acknowledges that the institution provided a teach-out plan in July 2014 for the four campuses listed above. However, as detailed in these plans and the most recent enrollment data received for the campuses¹, there are over 1,000 students with an estimated graduation date following the April 27, 2015 closure date of the campuses. The Council received no documentation of the provisions made for these students.
- In its initial teach-out plan provided in July 2014, each of the four campuses note that in the event that the school does not sell and it is taken into a teach out, the following will occur, including: “teach out partners will be identified where appropriate” and that new teach out plans will be submitted to ACICS for review/approval. ACICS did not receive any communication regarding identified teach out partners nor were new teach out plans received for review.

Council Request

In order to satisfy the Council’s concerns regarding the closure of the four Corinthian Colleges, Inc. campuses, please provide either or both of the following:

- (a) evidence that each student enrolled at the time of closure was offered an acceptable educational outcome by way of:
 - (i) completion of their program at the campus for which they were enrolled;
 - (ii) ability to enter into a Council approved teach-out agreement
 - (iii) ability to transfer into another institution through an acceptable transfer arrangement
 - (iv) ability to transfer into another institution which offers a comparable program and is geographically proximate to the closing campus
 - (v) receive a refund

In accordance with Section 2-2-301 of the ACICS Accreditation Criteria, the Council has acted to summarily suspend the institutions' grants of accreditation. Such action is authorized without prior notice or hearing and with immediate public notice.

Campus Closure Information

ACICS notes that the closure of these campuses did not follow Council requirements or standards for campus closures. However, given the immediate risk for students resulting from the precipitous closure of these campuses, ACICS must now focus on protecting the interests of students.

In that regard, we require the following information from Corinthian Colleges, Inc. (CCi) immediately:

1. Enrollment data for all four campuses as of Monday, April 27, 2015, including all student names and contact information; program and credential level; estimated graduation date; and indications of academic progress (amount of credit completed toward credential or amount of credit still needed to complete credential). The campuses must also note each student that was in or entering their final term of study.
2. Contact information for accessing necessary student records, including official transcripts and financial records, for all four campuses.
3. Copies of existing credit transfer or articulation agreements between any of the four campuses and other accredited institutions.

The cooperation of you and your organization in accomplishing these tasks in an accurate and timely manner will be material to the Council's considerations of CCi's compliance with Council standards.

Public Notification

The Council's decision will be made available to the U.S. Secretary of Education, the appropriate State licensing or authorizing agency, and the public via ACICS' Web site at www.acics.org.

You are advised that Section 2-3-1000 of the ACICS Accreditation Criteria stipulates that Council may bar any person or entity from being an owner or senior manager of an ACICS-accredited institution if that person or entity was an owner or manager of an institution that loses its accreditation without providing a teach-out or refund to students matriculated at that time.
