Kentucky Senate Bill 1 (2009)

Unbridled Learning

• New content standards in English/language arts; mathematics; science; social studies

• New balanced assessments

• Program Reviews in writing; arts/humanities; practical living/career studies

• New state accountability system
Unbridled Learning

• First to adopt Common Core State Standards (CCSS)
  ▪ First to teach and assess students on those standards
  ▪ First state to align high quality instructional resources with CCSS in a Continuous Instructional Improvement Technology System (CIITS)
  ▪ One of the first states with a comprehensive unified strategy for boosting college/career readiness
• First state to implement a next-generation accountability system based on a variety of measures:
  ▪ Student achievement
  ▪ Growth
  ▪ Gap
  ▪ College/career readiness
  ▪ Graduation rate
  ▪ Program Reviews
  ▪ Statewide principal and teacher evaluation system
Unbridled Learning

• Among the first states granted ESEA flexibility to use a next-generation state accountability model for federal accountability

Leadership Roles of Effective Boards

• Set clear and high expectations
• Create the conditions for success
• Hold the system accountable
• Create the public will to succeed
• Learn as a board team
KSBA’s Support of Board Leadership

- Partnerships with state agencies and organizations (accurate/timely/consistent information)
- Whole board training modules
- Statewide training opportunities
- Facilitation of community discussions
Kentucky Education Action Team (KEAT)

- Coalition representing all aspects of education: community, parent, teacher and P-12 public school leadership organizations
- Kentucky Board of Education issued a resolution supporting KEAT
- Mission: persuade General Assembly to provide and sustain sufficient resources that will advance and support learning for all P-12 public school students to reach their potential for career/college readiness

Leadership Network Work

- Break down or deconstruct standards into clear learning targets
- Design/implement high-quality formative assessment practices
- Plan/align rigorous and congruent learning experiences for instruction
- Select evidence-based strategies and resources to enhance instruction
- Facilitate and support professional learning at the local level based on district needs
• Searchable online database of CCSS and Kentucky academic standards, learning targets, aligned instructional resources
• Lesson planner and scheduler
• Class roster information
• Standards-based test item bank for formative assessment
• Assessment results from benchmark tests, K-PREP (state tests), ACT, PLAN and EXPLORE
• PD/teacher-leader effectiveness resources
• School improvement resources
Taking the Lead on Professional Growth and Educator Effectiveness
• Statewide, anonymous, online survey of school-based educators in spring 2011 to assess teaching conditions at school, district and state levels

• Record setting 80% response rate; more than 42,000 educators responded

• Overall, Kentucky educators are satisfied with the teaching and learning conditions in their school

• Teachers are most concerned with issues of time and managing student conduct

• There is great variance when looking at results within district and across districts

Recommendations

1. Support schools and districts in understanding and improving teaching conditions.
2. Help school leadership establish positive teaching and learning conditions in every school.
3. Support schools in engaging the broader community in efforts to understand and improve working conditions.
4. Ensure that every new teacher is inducted into the profession and receives more frequent support to improve instruction.
5. Continue to provide systemic opportunities for teachers to grow professional and participate in decisions that impact their schools and classrooms.
6. Use TELL Kentucky and other mechanisms to collect educators’ views on teaching and learning conditions to inform local and state human capital decisions.
Teacher and Principal Professional Growth and Effectiveness System

- Design involves 54 school districts and the participation of all educational partners
- Two steering committees working to define observation protocols, rubrics, multiple measures and processes to move from an evaluation system to an educator effectiveness system
- Work heavily influenced by the Measuring Effective Teaching (MET) project
- Need is to identify and validate highly effective teaching strategies
Teacher and Principal Professional Growth and Effectiveness System Timeline

Feb. – March 2012
- Train 54 volunteer districts in field test protocols and multiple measures

Feb. – May 2012
- Train the 54 districts in additional multiple measures

Summer 2012
- Full-scale field testing of all multiple measures with the 54 districts

Aug. 2012 – May 2013
- Limited field test of multiple measures with the 54 districts
  - Student growth/student goals
  - Self-reflection
  - Professional growth plan
  - Student voice (GATES Integration Grant Districts)

Summer 2013
- Train all districts in both the Teacher and Principal Professional Growth and Effectiveness System frameworks and multiple measures

Aug. 2013 – May 2014
- Pilot both systems in all districts

Aug. 2014
- Statewide implementation

Integrated Strategy

- Identify 12 integration districts to implement LDC tasks and MDC formative assessment lessons; integrate observation protocol, student learning evidence; field-test and validate teacher effectiveness rubric using MET tools
- Content specialists, effectiveness coaches and national experts work with the districts to support implementation and ensure fidelity
- Collect, analyze and use appropriate real time data
- Best practices taped using MET technology in readiness for statewide PD and implementation
