The Corporation will invite Student A to indicate within 15 days whether she claims any remedial actions as a result of the sexual harassment by a former Corporation volleyball coach, which may include payment for future counseling, reimbursement for previously received counseling, or other remedial actions as deemed appropriate. The Corporation will submit for OCR's approval the remedial actions it proposes to take and, upon approval of OCR, provide Student A written notice of its determination as to the necessity of remedial

For each student for whom the Corporation determines that a hostile environment did not occur, the Corporation will provide the student(s) written notice of its determination and provide the opportunity to appeal the determination. For each student for whom the Corporation determines that a hostile environment did occur, the Corporation will assess whether the student requires any remedial actions as a result of a hostile environment, which may include payment for future counseling, reimbursement for previously received counseling, or other remedial actions as deemed appropriate by the Corporation. The Corporation will submit for OCR's approval the remedial actions it proposes to take and provide the student(s) and, upon approval of OCR, will provide the students written notice of its determination as to the necessity of remedial actions (if any). The individual student's acceptance of the offer of remedial services that has been approved by OCR is not a condition to successful implementation of this paragraph.
