If all the schools the student lists on the FAFSA are electronic:

“You do not need to submit this SAR to the schools you listed. All of your schools will receive the information electronically.”

SAR Comment

If none of the schools the student lists on the FAFSA are electronic:

“You should submit a photocopy of this SAR to all the schools that you may be interested in attending. Submit the original SAR to the school where you actually enroll.”

SAR Comment

“Some of the schools that you listed do not receive information electronically. Review any financial aid materials you received from schools that you are interested in attending to see which ones require a photocopy of your SAR. Submit the original SAR to the school where you actually enroll.”

Updating and Corrections

- ✍ Change in dependency status (for reasons other than marriage)
- ✍ Change in the number of family members in the household
- ✍ Change in the number of family members enrolled in postsecondary schools

Federal Direct Loans

- The FAFSA serves as the application for all Direct Loans, except for Direct PLUS Loans (for parents)
- The Direct Loan lending process does not involve commercial lenders or guaranty agencies
- Direct Loans are handled directly between a student and a postsecondary school
- The money for Direct Loans is provided by the federal government

FFEL Program

- The FFEL Program requires a separate application/promissory note
- The postsecondary school must certify the application(s)
- The student or parent borrower must meet all of the eligibility requirements
- The student's financial need is verified by the financial aid administrator

Other Applications

- State applications
- Institutional applications
- Private applications
