Become a Peer Reviewer with the Department of Education

Gain a Valuable Credential while helping shape the Future of Education!

Each year the Department convenes panels of external education professionals and practitioners to serve as peer reviewers. Peer reviewers evaluate and score submitted applications against competition-specific criteria and announced priorities. Application scores are then used to inform the Secretary’s funding decisions.

Benefits of being a Peer Reviewer

Development
Network with and learn from other noted education colleagues

Service
Serve the education community by providing your unique expertise

Innovation
Be exposed to new & innovative ideas to expand and enhance education

Influence
Provide evaluations of application quality that are used by Secretary in making funding decisions

If you are interested in serving as a peer reviewer for the Department, please review the notice (linked above) and the program web pages of the grant programs that match your area of expertise.

Office of Elementary & Secondary Education
Office of Postsecondary Education
Office of Special Education & Rehabilitative Services
Office of English Language Acquisition
Office of Career, Technical, & Adult Education