School is covered by a state tuition recovery fund.

Notes: Students who wished to continue pursuing the Bachelor of Arts in Administrative Leadership were given the options of taking their remaining major requirements on-site at Oklahoma City Community College and the OU-Norman Campus or enrolling in online versions of those same classes. The on-site versions of BAAL courses have been offered online since the program's inception and have always represented the alternative course delivery option in place for on-site cohort programs that do not enroll enough students to be viable.

Student Arrangements: Only the major requirements for the Bachelor of Arts in Administrative Leadership (39 of 120 total hours) and the Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies (42 of 126 total hours) were ever taught at the Rose State location.

The Bachelor of Arts in Administrative Leadership's major requirements were available in both an on-site option at Rose State and other area locations, and online from the OU main campus.
