Student Arrangements: In 2019 the New Jersey legislature decided that consolidation of its correctional facilities would save money and instructed the NJ Department of Corrections (NJDOC) to identify locations that could be consolidated or decommissioned. Albert C. Wagner Youth Correctional Facility in Bordentown, which housed 300 offenders, was one of the facilities identified in October 2019 for closure. The 23 students who had been enrolled in Raritan Valley Community College's Returning and Incarcerated Student Education (RISE) program at Wagner were transferred to Garden State Youth Correctional Facility (Garden State), which is adjacent to the Wagner property and is listed as an additional location under RVCC's Middle States accreditation. Like Wagner, Garden State is covered by RVCC's Memorandum of Understanding with the NJDOC and the Rutgers-funded NJ Scholarship in Transformative Education (NJ-STEP) consortium. NJ-STEP employs counselors at each prison facility to provide counseling, handle student enrollment in classes, and offer re-entry services. Therefore, our students were able to move seamlessly into classes at Garden State with no disruption to their coursework or change in their degree progression.
