Closure Date: 09/13/2020

School has a $101,130 performance bond.

Notes: CollegeAmerica Denver's owner, Center for Excellence in Higher Education ("CEHE"), initially provided notification of the planned closure in June 2020 to the U.S. Department of Education, the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges and the Colorado Division of Private Occupational Schools. The college ceased accepting new students in September 2019.

On or about June 16, 2020, all active students were notified that the college would cease providing educational instruction on September 13, 2020. Although the plan was to teach out all students at the campus, due to the declining student population, COVID-19 disruptions, the uncertainty as to when ground instruction would be able to resume, and the necessity to shift to online instruction, CEHE made the decision to officially close the campus. CEHE is providing all students with official transcripts and career assistance.

Academic and financial aid transcripts are stored electronically in CEHE's Student Information System. Hard copy records will be retained at CEHE's corporate offices in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Student Arrangements: All students were offered the opportunity to transfer to CEHE's other college, Independence University, to complete their programs.
