

Final List of Private Meetings and Attendees
Proposed Rule for Gainful Employment
December 15, 2010
U.S. Department of Education

“Over the past several weeks, the U.S. Department of Education met with over 50 unique entities to discuss their comments received in response to the notice of proposed rulemaking for gainful employment published on July 29, 2010. Below you will find the complete list of individuals who participated on behalf of for-profit institutions, community colleges, higher education organizations, student organizations, and other interested parties.

As a whole, the discussions resulting from these meetings helped to ensure that the Department underwent a thorough and thoughtful review process that will ultimately result in a rule that best serves the interests of students and taxpayers alike. The Department appreciates the constructive viewpoints shared throughout the course of these discussions and is on track to publish a final rule in early 2011.”

The following Department Officials and Staff participated in private meetings on the subject of gainful employment:

Office of the Secretary (ED-SEC)

- Arne Duncan, Secretary of Education

Office of the Deputy Secretary (ED-ODS)

- Tony Miller, Deputy Secretary

Office of the Under Secretary (ED-OUS)
