(i) That is less than 25 percent for each of the three most recent fiscal years during which rates have been issued, to the extent those rates are calculated under subpart M of this part;

(ii) On or after 2014, that is less than 30 percent for at least two of the three most recent fiscal years during which the Secretary has issued rates for the institution under subpart N of this part; and

(iii) As defined in 34 CFR 674.5, on loans made under the Federal Perkins Loan Program to students for attendance at that institution that does not exceed 15 percent.

(i) However, if the Secretary determines that an institution's administrative capability is impaired solely because the institution fails to comply with paragraph (ms)(1) of this section, and the institution is not subject to a loss of eligibility under §§ 668.187(a) or 668.206(a), the Secretary allows the institution to continue to participate in the Title IV, HEA programs. In such a case, the Secretary may provisionally certify the institution in accordance with § 668.13(c) except as provided in paragraphs (ms)(2)(ii) through (ms)(2)(iii), (ms)(2)(iv), and (ms)(2)(v) of this section.

(ii) An institution that fails to meet the standard of administrative capability under paragraph (sm)(1)(ii) based on two cohort default rates that are greater than or equal to 30 percent but less than or equal to 40 percent is not placed on provisional certification under paragraph (ms)(2)(i) of this section -

(A) If it has timely filed a request for adjustment or appeal under §§ 668.209, 668.210, or 668.212 with respect to the second such rate, and the request for adjustment or appeal is either pending or succeeds in reducing the rate below 30 percent; or

(B) If it has timely filed an appeal under § 668.213 after receiving the second such rate, and the appeal is either pending or successful; or

(C)(1) If it has timely filed a participation rate index challenge or appeal under § 668.204(c) or § 668.214 from either or both of the two rates, and the challenge or appeal is either pending or successful; or

(2) If the second rate is the most recent draft rate, and the institution has timely filed a participation rate challenge to that draft rate that is either pending or successful.

(iii) The institution may appeal the loss of full participation in a Title IV, HEA program under paragraph (ms)(2)(i) of this section by submitting an erroneous data appeal in writing to the Secretary in accordance with and on the grounds specified in §§ 668.192 or 668.211 as applicable;

(iv) If the institution has 30 or fewer borrowers in the three most recent cohorts of borrowers used to calculate its cohort default rate under subpart N of this part, we will not provisionally certify it solely based on cohort default rates;

(v) If a rate that would otherwise potentially subject the institution to provisional certification under paragraphs (ms)(1)(ii) and (ms)(2)(i) of this section is calculated as an average rate, we will not provisionally certify it solely based on cohort default rates;

(tn) Does not otherwise appear to lack the ability to administer the Title IV, HEA programs competently;

(use) Participates in the electronic processes that the Secretary -

(1) Provides at no substantial charge to the institution; and

(2) Identifies through a notice published in the Federal Register; and

(vtp) Develops and follows adequate procedures to evaluate the validity of a student's high school completion diploma if the institution or the Secretary has reason to believe that the high school diploma is not valid or was not obtained from an entity that provides secondary school education.

(1) Adequate procedures to evaluate the validity of a student's high school diploma completion must include--

(i) Obtaining documentation from the high school, if the high school is still open, that confirms the validity of the high school diploma, including at least one of the following—

(A) A copy of the diploma or other official record confirming that the high school conferred a diploma to the student

(B) Transcripts;

(C) Written descriptions of course requirements; or

(D) Written and signed statements by principals or executive officers at the high school attesting to the rigor and quality of coursework at the high school; and

(ii) If the high school is regulated or overseen by a State agency, confirming with or receiving documentation from that agency that the high school is recognized or meets requirements established by that agency.

(iii) If the high school the student attended is no longer open, the institution must take other reasonable steps to verify the validity of the diploma such as contacting the entity that may serve as a repository for the closed high school's critical records, if applicable; but the student is not barred from participating in title IV, HEA programs solely because the high school is no longer open.

(2) A high school diploma is not valid if it—

(i) Is not recognized or does not meet the requirements established by the appropriate State agency in which the State where the high school is located;

(ii) Has been determined to be invalid by the Department, the appropriate State agency in which the State where the high school was located, or through a court proceeding; ~~or~~

(iii) Was obtained from an entity that requires little or no secondary instruction education or coursework to obtain a high school diploma, including through a test that does not meet the requirements for a recognized equivalent of a high school diploma under 34 CFR 600.2.; or

(iv) Was obtained from an entity that—

(A) ~~Has-Maintains~~ a business financial relationship where or is otherwise affiliated with the eligible institution at which the student is enrolled; and

(B) Is not accredited.
