

Section V.B.
Significant Disproportionality Reporting Form

Section A: Minimum N-Sizes

- 1. No
- 2. Yes
- 2a. Yes

Table 1:

Minimum N-Size	Rationale
30	Based on federal guidance and stakeholder input, New Hampshire has determined a minimum N-size of 30 reasonable for our state.

Section B: Minimum Cell Sizes

- 3. Yes
- 3a. Yes

Table 3:

Minimum Cell Size	Rationale
10	Based on federal guidance and stakeholder input, New Hampshire has determined a minimum cell size of 10 reasonable for our state.

Section C: Risk Ratio Thresholds

- 4. Yes

Table 5:

Risk Ratio Threshold	Rationale
3.50	Pursuant to 34 CFR 300.646 and with stakeholder input New Hampshire has determined reasonable the threshold above which disproportionality is significant at 3.50.

Section D: Reasonable Progress

- 5. Yes
- 5a. Yes

Table 7:

Standard	Rationale
10% rate of decrease year to year over 3 years	Based on federal guidance and stakeholder input, New Hampshire has determined a reasonable progress of 10% rate of decrease reasonable for our state.

Section E; Number of Years of Data

6. Yes

Table 9:

Number of Years of Data Used
3