Acknowledgments

I am deeply grateful to all of those who helped to produce this year’s Guide. It could not have been published without the work and dedication of hundreds of employees throughout the Department, in particular the team who served as principal office editors and reviewers. This year’s editors were: Tom Brown of the Institute of Education Sciences; Susan Winingar, formerly of the Office of Elementary and Secondary Education; Cindy Ryan and Stephanie Solvato of the Office of English Language Acquisition; Liza Araujo-Rouse of the Office of Innovation and Improvement; James Laws and Francine Picoult of the Office of Postsecondary Education; Kelly Litchfield of the Office of Safe and Drug-Free Schools; Melanie Winston of the Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services; and Dale King of the Office of Vocational and Adult Education. Thanks also go to Laruen Walizer, of the Budget Services, on FSA data.

The reviewers were Helene Brecher of the Office of the General Counsel and Jan Solomon of the Budget Service. A longtime contributor to the success of this Guide, Solomon deserves particular mention for her considerable efforts to ensure the accuracy of the data in this book and for providing indispensable technical assistance whenever needed.

Danielle Duggan, Sofia Espaillat, Eliza Gilmore, and Maria-Luiza Popescu, all former interns of the Office of Communications and Outreach (OCO), unselfishly donated their time to assist in various roles and provided invaluable assistance with numerous facets of production; their input significantly contributed to a high-quality product. Nicole Carinci, John Smith, and intern Leetha Phonharath, also of OCO, generously provided assistance as well.

I owe much to all who helped bring this year’s Guide to fruition.

Introduction

The Guide to U.S. Department of Education Programs (Guide) provides an overview of U.S. Department of Education programs authorized and funded under federal law. It includes information as well on the laboratories, centers, and other facilities funded by the Department that provide important resources for education.

Currently, nine offices are responsible for operating these programs. These offices are:
• Federal Student Aid (FSA);
• Institute of Education Sciences (IES);
• Office of Elementary and Secondary Education (OESE);
• Office of English Language Acquisition (OELA);
• Office of Innovation and Improvement (OII);
• Office of Postsecondary Education (OPE);
• Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services (OSERS);
• Office of the Deputy Secretary (ODS); and
• Office of Vocational and Adult Education (OVAE).

Format of Entries in the Guide
Each entry, which gives a brief overview of a program or resource, is listed initially by a broad topical heading. The Guide is organized alphabetically according to these topical headings, and then alphabetically by program title within each heading. The program title as well as any commonly or formerly used names for the program come next, followed by the name of the principal office that administers the program. A unique identifier, either a number based on the CFDA (Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance) or an assigned ED number, follows. (For more information on CFDA numbers, see the CFDA website at: http://www.cfda.gov.) After the CFDA or ED number, information is provided about the entities that are eligible to apply to programs. This is followed by information on any current competitions, including application deadlines, and a categorical description of the type of assistance, such as “formula grants” or “competitive/discretionary grants,” by which a program operates.

Each entry continues on to detail funding levels for FY 2012 and the previous two fiscal years, a three-year format similar to the federal government’s annual budget. The FY 2012 appropriation for the Department, signed into law on Dec. 23, 2012, as the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2012, P.L. 112-74, included a 0.189 percent across-the-board rescission, reduced the funding for many programs below FY 2011 levels, and eliminated funding for approximately 30 programs. No funding was provided for new programs, so there are no new program entries in the Guide this year. Additionally, programs with three years of zero funding are archived automatically from the Guide each year. This year, eight programs were retired.

The next section provides information about any new awards in FY 2012 as well as any continuation awards. Information may include the number of these awards, and their average amount and range in dollars.

Following awards information is the citation for the program’s authorizing legislation and applicable program regulations. For major pieces of legislation, unless otherwise noted, the words “as amended” refer readers to the most recent reauthorization of the law cited. For example, the most recent amendments to the Elementary and Secondary Education Act are contained in the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB). Therefore, the citation “Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965, as amended” refers to the changes made by NCLB. When a program is authorized under an amendment prior to the most recent reauthorization, the name of the earlier amendment is listed. Other significant legislation and recent major amendments include: the Higher Education Act of 1965, most recently amended in 2008 by the Higher Education Opportunity Act; the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act or IDEA, most recently amended by the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004; the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, most recently amended by Title IV of the Workforce Investment Act of 1998; and the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act of 2006 amended the Carl D. Perkins Vocational and Applied Technology Education Act of 1998. The Education Department General Administrative Regulations, referred to as EDGAR, generally apply to all discretionary and competitive grants. The same is true for the governmentwide Federal Acquisition Regulation, or FAR, for contracts. (Although the Guide is primarily a resource tool highlighting Department-funded programs, which are primarily grant opportunities, contracts of high-dollar value that contribute to the information base regarding the national status of education are included as well.)

Guide to Programs | FY 2012  xix
Next is a brief description of the program's purpose and information about the types of projects carried out, as well as the target education level(s) for each program. This is followed by key subject terms, which readers can use to reference other related programs. At the end of each entry, the Department has provided contact information, along with related websites that may be of interest.

Other Guide Features

The Guide contains a list of abbreviations and their meanings; an index of programs by title, an index of programs by CFDA number; an index of subject terms, typically several of which are listed with each program for identifying programs with a similar focus; and an index of programs by Department office. A list of other Web addresses that may be of interest to the reader is found on the inside back cover.

Program Information on the Web

The Department’s website (http://www.ed.gov) houses the current and six historical editions of the Guide at: http://www.ed.gov/programs/gtep/gtep.pdf. The PDF can be searched by word, program title, CFDA or ED number, for example. Additionally, the Department’s website contains extended program profiles, allowing a user to perform a full-text search on these pages or to perform more customized searches by administering office, title, subject, ED or CFDA number, assistance type, and eligibility. The Department’s website also contains an archive of programs that generally have not been funded for three or more years, starting in fall 2003. See http://www2.ed.gov/programs/find/archive/index.html?src=ln.

Other Notices of Grants and Contracts

Readers interested in the Department’s discretionary grant competitions should refer frequently to the Forecast of Funding Opportunities Under the Department of Education Discretionary Grant Programs for Fiscal Year (FY) 2012 at: http://www.ed.gov/fund/grant/find/edlite-forecast.html. Notices of all competitions for the Department of Education discretionary and competitive grants are published in the Federal Register, which is published by the National Archives and Records Administration’s Office of the Federal Register (see: http://www.archives.gov/federal_register). You also may access Federal Register documents specific only to the Department of Education at: http://www.ed.gov/news/fedregister.

Those interested in the Department’s contract opportunities should refer frequently to the Forecast of ED Contract Opportunities at: http: www.ed.gov/fund/contract/find/forecast.html. General information on the Department’s contracts may be found at: http://www.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocfo/contracts/contracts.html. As of Jan. 2, 2002, requests for proposals (RFPs) for Department procurement opportunities exceeding $25,000, which were previously announced in the Commerce Business Daily, are now advertised on the Federal Business Opportunities website at: https://www.fbo.gov. This Web publication was designated in the Federal Acquisition Regulation to provide universal public access on the Internet to governmentwide federal procurement opportunities (see 66 Federal Register 27407; May 16, 2001).

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program supports community learning centers that provide academic enrichment opportunities during nonschool hours for children, particularly students who attend low-performing schools. The program is intended to help students meet state and local performance standards in core academic subjects, such as reading and math; offers students a broad array of enrichment activities to complement their regular academic programs; and offers literacy and other educational services to the families of participating children.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Each eligible entity that receives an award from the state may use the funds to carry out a broad array of before- and after-school activities (including those held during summer recess periods) to advance student achievement. These activities may include:

- Remedial education activities and academic enrichment learning programs, including those that provide additional assistance to students to allow the students to improve their academic achievement;
- Mathematics and science education activities;
- Arts and music education activities;
- Entrepreneurial education programs;
- Tutoring services, including those provided by senior citizen volunteers, and mentoring programs;
- Programs that provide after-school activities for limited English proficient (LEP) students that emphasize language skills and academic achievement;
- Recreational activities;
- Telecommunications and technology education programs;
- Expanded library service hours;
- Programs that promote parental involvement and family literacy;
- Programs that provide assistance to students who have been truant, suspended, or expelled to allow them to improve their academic achievement;
- Drug and violence prevention programs;
- Counseling programs; and
- Character education programs.

Note: In FY 2012, the Department provided states with the opportunity to request flexibility under several provisions of ESEA. As part of that process, states may request a waiver of the requirement that 21st CCLC program activities be carried out during nonschool hours (or periods when school is not in session) in order to use 21st CCLC program funds to support expanded learning time during the school day.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Education Jobs Fund program provides $10 billion in assistance to states and the outlying areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) to save or create education jobs for the 2010–11 school year. Jobs funded under this program include those that provide educational and related services for early childhood, elementary, and secondary education.
TYPES OF PROJECTS
The program provides financial assistance to states to pay salaries and benefits, and rehire, retain, or hire employees for the 2010–11 school year. These funds may not be used for administrative expenses, overhead, or other support services.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program helped LEAs improve literacy skills and academic achievement by providing students with increased access to up-to-date school library materials; well-equipped, technologically advanced school library media centers; and well-trained professionally certified school library media specialists.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

Districts were permitted to use funds for the following activities:

- Purchasing up-to-date school library media resources, including books;
- Acquiring and using advanced technology that is integrated into the school curricula to develop and enhance the information literacy, information retrieval, and critical-thinking skills of students;
- Facilitating Internet links and other resource-sharing networks among schools and school library media centers, and public and academic libraries;
- Providing professional development for school library media specialists and providing activities that foster increased collaboration among school library media specialists, teachers, and administrators; and
- Providing students with access to school libraries during nonschool hours, weekends, and summer vacations.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
34 CFR 74, 75, 77, 80, 81, 82, 84, 85, 86, 97, 98, 99

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The purpose of the program is to provide competitive grants to applicants with a record of improving student achievement and attainment in order to expand the implementation of, and investment in, innovative practices that are demonstrated to have an impact on improving student achievement or student growth, closing achievement gaps, decreasing dropout rates, increasing high school graduation rates, or increasing college enrollment and completion rates, and that the effect of implementing the proposed practice, strategy, or program will be substantial and important.

Validation grants provide funding to support practices, strategies, or programs that show promise, but for which there is currently only moderate evidence that the proposed practice, strategy, or program will have a statistically significant effect on improving student achievement or student growth, closing achievement gaps, decreasing dropout rates, increasing high school graduation rates, or increasing college enrollment and completion rates and that, with further study, the effect of implementing the proposed practice, strategy, or program may prove to be substantial and important.

Development grants provide funding to support high-potential and relatively untested practices, strategies, or programs whose efficacy should be systematically studied. An applicant must provide evidence that the proposed practice, strategy, or program, or one similar to it, has been attempted previously, albeit on a limited scale or in a limited setting, and yielded promising results that suggest that more formal and systematic study is warranted. An applicant must provide a rationale for the proposed practice, strategy, or program that is based on research findings or reasonable hypotheses, including related research or theories in education and other sectors.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The purpose of this program was to carry out a coordinated program of scientifically based research, demonstration projects, innovative strategies, and similar activities designed to build and enhance the ability of elementary and secondary schools to meet the special education needs of gifted and talented students. A major goal of the program was to serve students who are traditionally underrepresented in gifted and talented programs, particularly economically disadvantaged, limited English proficient (LEP), and disabled students, to help reduce the gap in achievement at the highest levels among certain groups of students.

Grants were awarded under two priorities. Priority One supported initiatives to develop and scale up models serving students who are underrepresented in gifted and talented programs. Priority Two supported state and local efforts to improve services for gifted and talented students. The program also supported a National Research Center on the Gifted and Talented administered by the Department’s Institute of Education Sciences (IES) with research competition information posted, when available, at http://www.gifted.uconn.edu/nrcgt.html. No more than 30 percent of appropriated funds may be spent for research.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects were required to carry out one or more of the following:
• Conducting scientifically based research on methods and techniques for identifying and teaching gifted and talented students and for using gifted and talented programs and methods to serve all students;
• Conducting program evaluations, surveys, and other analyses needed to accomplish the purpose of the program;
• Carrying out professional development for personnel involved in the education of gifted and talented students;
• Establishing and operating model projects and exemplary programs for serving gifted and talented students, including innovative methods of serving students whose needs may not be met by more traditional gifted and talented programs (including summer programs, mentoring, service learning, and programs involving business, industry, and education);
• Implementing innovative strategies, such as cooperative learning, peer tutoring, and service learning;
• Providing technical assistance and information on how to serve gifted and talented students and, where appropriate, how to adapt gifted and talented programs to serve all students;
• Making materials and services available through state regional education service centers, IHEs, or other entities; or
• Providing challenging, high-level course work, disseminated through technologies (including distance learning), for students in schools or LEAs that would not otherwise have the resources for such course work.

As noted above in Program Description, the program supported the National Research Center on the Gifted and Talented for the purpose of carrying out the allowable activities described above.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The purpose of this program is to build on the lessons learned from the state competitions conducted under the Race to the Top program and to support bold, locally directed improvements in learning and teaching that will directly improve student achievement and educator effectiveness.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
This program is designed to encourage and reward those LEAs or consortia of LEAs that have the leadership and vision to implement the strategies, structures, and systems needed to implement personalized, student-focused approaches to learning and teaching that will produce excellence and ensure equity for all students. An LEA or consortia of LEAs receiving an award under this competition will build on the lessons learned from and the progress of states and districts in implementing reforms under four core educational assurance areas identified in the American Reinvestment and Recovery Act: (1) adopting standards and assessments that prepare students to succeed in college and the workplace and to compete in the global economy; (2) building data systems that measure student growth and success, and inform teachers and principals with data about how they can improve instruction; (3) recruiting, developing, rewarding, and retaining effective teachers and principals, especially where they are needed most; and (4) turning around lowest-achieving schools.

L. 112-74] )

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The purpose of this program is to improve the quality of early learning and development and close the achievement gap for children with high needs. The program is organized around five key areas that represent the foundation of an effective early learning and development reform agenda that is focused on school readiness and ongoing educational success:

• Successful State Systems;
• High-Quality, Accountable Programs;
• Promoting Early Learning and Development Outcomes for Children;
• A Great Early Childhood Education Workforce; and
• Measuring Outcomes and Progress.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
This program seeks to help close the achievement gap between children with high needs and their peers by supporting state efforts to build strong systems of early learning and development that provide increased access to high-quality programs for the children who need it most.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this program is to encourage and reward states making dramatic education reforms in four core assurance areas (listed in Type of Assistance specifically). The Department seeks to fund systemic approaches to reform and continuous improvement that drive substantial gains in student achievement, close achievement gaps, and improve graduation rates and college success.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

This program is designed to help grantees create the conditions for innovation and reform, implement ambitious plans in the four reform areas (see Type of Assistance, specifically), and achieve dramatic improvement in student outcomes. Funded activities occur at the state, local, and school levels.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the program is to provide financial assistance to rural districts to assist them in meeting their state’s definition of adequate yearly progress (AYP). Applicants do not compete but rather are entitled to funds if they meet basic eligibility requirements. Eligibility is restricted by statute.

Awards are issued annually to SEAs, which make subgrants to LEAs that meet the applicable requirements. Awards are made to all SEAs that apply and meet the applicable requirements of the Act (see Legislative Citation above). If an SEA does not participate, awards are issued by the U.S. Department of Education to eligible LEAs in the state either competitively or by formula.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

Recipients may use program funds to conduct the following activities:

- Teacher recruitment and retention, including the use of signing bonuses and other financial incentives;
- Teacher professional development, including programs that train teachers to use technology to improve teaching and that train teachers of students with special needs;
- Support for educational technology, including software and hardware, that meets the requirements of ESEA, Title II, Part D (see Enhancing Education Through Technology Program; see # 84.318, under topical heading Technology);
- Parental involvement activities;
- Activities authorized under the Safe and Drug-Free Schools and Communities: State Grants program (ESEA, Title IV, Part A, Subpart 1);
- Activities authorized under ESEA, Title I, Part A (Improving Basic Programs Operated by LEAs; see # 84.010, under topical heading Disadvantaged Persons); or

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program funded LEAs to create or expand smaller learning communities that were part of a comprehensive effort to prepare all students to succeed in postsecondary education and careers without need for remediation.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
LEAs received funds on behalf of large high schools to enable those schools to undertake research-based reforms and restructure themselves into smaller learning environments. Structures included “houses,” career academies, theme-based academies, or other smaller organizational units. Accompanying strategies that supported the creation or expansion of these smaller learning environments included block scheduling, mentoring programs, teacher-advisory systems, and other innovations that created a more personal educational experience for students.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Compact Amendments Act eliminated the participation of FSM and RMI in most domestic formula programs funded by the departments of Education, Health and Human Services (HHS), and Labor. In lieu of eligibility for grants under these programs, the Act authorizes supplemental education grants for FSM and RMI in an amount roughly equivalent to the total formula funds these entities received prior to fiscal year 2005. The Department is required to transfer funds to the Department of the Interior for disbursement and use at the local school level.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Types of direct educational services provided by this program include: school readiness, early childhood education, elementary and secondary education, vocational training, adult and family literacy, the services related to transition from high school to postsecondary education and careers, education improvement programs, vocational and skills training, and professional development.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The objectives of this program are to:
1. Improve the quality, validity, and reliability of state academic assessments beyond the requirements for these assessments described in Section 1111(b)(3) of ESEA;
2. Measure student academic achievement using multiple measures from multiple sources;
3. Chart student progress over time; and
4. Evaluate student academic achievement through the development of comprehensive academic assessment instruments, such as performance- and technology-based academic assessments.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects address program objectives by producing significant research regarding assessment systems, assessments, or related methodologies, products, or tools.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
34 CFR 76, 77, 80, 81, 82, 84, 85, 97, 98, and 99

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program is designed to support the development of the state assessments and standards required by Section 1111(b) of ESEA. If a state has developed the assessments and standards required by Section 1111(b), funds support the administration of those assessments or other activities related to ensuring that the state’s schools and local education agencies (LEAs) are held accountable for results.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects include development or subsequent implementation of standards and standards-based state academic assessments in reading or language arts, mathematics, and science as required by Section 1111(b) of ESEA. When the state has met all standards and assessment requirements, the funds may be used, for example, to improve standards, alignment, reporting, or expanded use of test accommodations.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
NAEP, also known as the Nation’s Report Card, is the only nationally representative and continuing assessment of what America’s students know and can do in various subject areas. The first assessments were conducted in 1969.

The NAEP budget supports the following program components:

• National NAEP—These assessments report information for the nation and specific geographic regions of the country and include students from grades 4, 8, and 12, drawn from both public and nonpublic schools. The assessments periodically measure student achievement in reading, mathematics, science, writing, U. S. history, civics, geography, and the arts.

• State NAEP—State assessments address the needs of state-level policymakers for reliable data concerning student achievement in their states in reading, mathematics, science, and writing. Title I requires state NAEP participation in biennial reading and math assessments for grades 4 and 8.

• NAEP Trial Urban District Assessment (TUDA)—Initiated in 2002, the TUDA provides information on student achievement in a small number of large urban school districts. Participation is voluntary. In 2011, 21 districts (including the District of Columbia) participated in TUDA.

• Long-Term Trend—NAEP long-term trend assessments, designed to give information on the changes in the basic achievement of America’s youths, are administered nationally and report student performance at ages 9, 13, and 17 in reading and mathematics.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Statewide data system grants enable SEAs to design, develop, and implement statewide longitudinal data systems to efficiently and accurately manage, analyze, disaggregate, and use individual student data, consistent with the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA), as amended (20 U.S.C. 6301 et seq.).

Up to $10 million of the funds may be used for awards to public or private organizations or agencies to improve data coordination, quality, and use.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
The FY 2012 funds will be used for two separate activities:
1. Statewide data systems development awards—These awards enable SEAs to design, develop, and implement statewide longitudinal data systems to efficiently and accurately manage, analyze, disaggregate, and use individual student data.
2. Data coordination awards—These awards provide technical assistance and resources to facilitate states’ implementation of statewide longitudinal data systems, including assistance to ensure compliance with privacy regulations; development of common education data standards; and effective use of data by teachers, principals, and local education agency (LEA) staff.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Federal funds are made available to develop more fully the academic, career, and technical skills of secondary and postsecondary students who elect to enroll in CTE programs. In accordance with the Perkins Act, states must allocate at least 85 percent of the funds to eligible recipients, which include local education agencies (LEAs), two- and four-year colleges and universities that offer subbaccalaureate CTE programs, area CTE centers, and postsecondary education institutions controlled by the Department of the Interior’s Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) or operated by or on behalf of any Indian tribe that is eligible to contract with the secretary of the interior for the administration of programs under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (25 U.S.C. 450 et seq.) or the Act of April 16, 1934 (25 U.S.C. 452 et seq.).

TYPES OF PROJECTS
This program provides states with support for state leadership activities, administration of the state plan for CTE, and subgrants to eligible recipients to improve CTE programs. To be eligible for a subgrant, an eligible recipient must operate a CTE program that, among other things:

- Strengthens the academic, career, and technical skills of students participating in CTE programs, achieved by integrating core academic subjects into CTE programs through a coherent sequence of courses;
- Provides students with strong experience in and understanding of all aspects of a particular industry;
- Develops, improves, or expands the use of technology in CTE;
- Develops and implements evaluations of the CTE programs carried out with funds under the Perkins Act, including an assessment of how the needs of special populations and other student populations are being met;
- Initiates, improves, expands, and modernizes quality CTE programs;
- Provides professional development programs to teachers, faculty, counselors, and administrators;
- Provides services and activities that are of sufficient size, scope, and quality to be effective;
- Links secondary CTE with postsecondary CTE programs, including offering at least one CTE program of study; and
- Provides activities to prepare special populations for high-skill, high-wage, or high-demand occupations that will lead to self-sufficiency.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Perkins Act National Activities authority supports research, evaluation, information dissemination, technical assistance to states, and other activities aimed at improving the quality and effectiveness of career and technical education (CTE). The legislation specifically calls for, among other activities, the operation of a national center for research, dissemination, and technical assistance in CTE, and a national assessment of CTE programs operated under the Perkins Act.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects include research, development, demonstration, dissemination, identification of best methods, capacity building, technical assistance, evaluation, and assessment activities:

- The National Research Center for Career and Technical Education (NRCCCTE) (# 84.051A) supports scientifically based research and evaluation, information dissemination, technical assistance, and professional development.
- The Promoting Rigorous Programs of Study program (#84.051C) provides resources and technical assistance to support implementation of rigorous programs of study that link secondary and postsecondary education, combine academic and career and technical education in a structured sequence of courses, and offer students the opportunities to earn postsecondary credits for courses taken in high school that lead to a postsecondary credential, certificate, or degree. Grantees must incorporate the components defined in the Rigorous Programs of Study Framework described in the Notice Inviting Applications (NIA) and evaluate the effectiveness of their projects.

Awards were made to eligible state boards for career and technical education (CTE), which in turn awarded funds on the basis of a formula or competition to consortia that included at least one member from each of the two following categories:

- A local education agency (LEA), an intermediate education agency, education service agency, or an area CTE school serving secondary school students, or a secondary school funded by the U.S. Department of the Interior’s Bureau of Indian Education (BIE).
- Either (a) a nonprofit institution of higher education (IHE) that offers a two-year associate degree, two-year certificate, or two-year postsecondary apprenticeship program or (b) a proprietary IHE that offers a two-year associate degree program.

Under the provisions of Section 203(a)(1) of the Carl D. Perkins Career and Technical Education Act of 2006, to be eligible for consortium membership, both nonprofit and proprietary IHEs (including institutions receiving assistance under the Tribally Controlled College or University Assistance Act of 1978 [25 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.] and tribally controlled postsecondary vocational and technical institutions) must be qualified as IHEs pursuant to Section 102 of the Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA). In addition, nonprofit IHEs are eligible only if they are not prohibited from receiving assistance under Title IV, Part B, of HEA (20 U.S.C. 1071 et seq.) pursuant to the provisions of Section 435(a)(2) of HEA (20 U.S.C. 1083 (a)). PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program provided assistance to states to award grants to consortia of LEAs and postsecondary education institutions for the development and operation of programs consisting of the last two years of secondary education and at least two years of postsecondary education, and which were designed to lead to technical-skill proficiency, an industry-recognized credential, a certificate, or a degree in a specific career field. The program also was designed to strengthen links between secondary and postsecondary schools.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
The Perkins Act requires that Tech Prep programs had, among other things, the following elements:

1. An articulation agreement between secondary and postsecondary consortium participants;
2. A program of study that combines a minimum of two years of secondary education with a minimum of two years of postsecondary education in sequential course of study or an apprenticeship program of not less than two years following secondary education instruction;
3. A specifically developed Tech Prep curriculum;
4. Joint in-service training of secondary teachers; postsecondary faculty, and administrators to implement the Tech Prep curriculum effectively;
5. Training of counselors to provide comprehensive counseling services to students and to ensure program completion and appropriate employment;
6. Equal access for special populations to the full range of Tech Prep programs;
7. Preparatory services; and
8. Coordination with programs under Title I of the Perkins Act.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The We the People program was established to improve the quality of civics and government education by educating students about the history and principles of the U.S. Constitution, including the Bill of Rights, and to foster civic competence and responsibility. The program has two main components: (1) The Citizen and the Constitution and (2) Project Citizen. The Citizen and the Constitution is an instructional program on the principles of the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights for elementary, middle, and high school students to promote understanding of the principles and values on which our political institutions are based. Project Citizen provides instruction at the middle school level on the role of state and local governments in the federal system established by the U.S. Constitution to enhance student attainment of challenging academic content standards in civics and government. The Center for Civic Education also operates the School Violence Prevention Demonstration as well as Representative Democracy in America through the We the People grant.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
The We the People program provides teacher training and curricular materials to public and private elementary and secondary schools, including schools administered by the Bureau of Indian Education (BIE), in the 435 congressional districts, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the outlying areas (American Samoa, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the U.S. Virgin Islands). Schools participating in The Citizen and the Constitution implement a curriculum that focuses on promoting citizenship and increasing students’ understanding of the rights and responsibilities of citizens and improves students’ knowledge of the Constitution of the U.S. Activities include simulated congressional hearings with community members acting as judges and an annual national competition in which secondary student teams compete in simulated congressional hearings. Students participating in Project Citizen learn about state and local government by choosing a social problem, evaluating policy alternatives, and developing a plan to address the problem that is presented to school and community leaders through simulated legislative hearings.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
EDGAR; 34 CFR 350

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The primary purpose of NIDRR is to carry out a program of research and related activities designed to maximize the full inclusion, employment, independent living, and economic sufficiency of individuals with disabilities, with particular emphasis on improving the effectiveness of services authorized under the Rehabilitation Act. NIDRR focuses on such applied research as:

1. The transfer of rehabilitation technology to individuals with disabilities;
2. Widespread distribution of practical scientific and technological information in usable formats; and
3. Identification of effective strategies to enhance opportunities for individuals with disabilities to engage in productive work and live independently.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
NIDRR funds are used to support rehabilitation research, demonstration projects, and related activities, including the training of persons who provide rehabilitation services or who conduct rehabilitation research. In addition, NIDRR supports projects to disseminate and promote the use of information concerning developments in rehabilitation procedures, methods, and devices. NIDRR also supports data analyses of the demographics of individuals with disabilities.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
RERCs support research on issues dealing with rehabilitation technology, including rehabilitation engineering and assistive technology devices and services. RERCs generally either:
1. Lead to the development of methods, procedures, and devices that will benefit individuals with disabilities, especially those with the most severe disabilities; or
2. Involve technology for the purposes of enhancing opportunities for meeting the needs of and addressing the barriers confronted by individuals with disabilities in all aspects of their lives.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Types of activities supported by RERCs include: the development of technological systems for persons with disabilities; stimulation of the production and distribution of equipment in the private sector; and clinical evaluations of equipment. Awards are for five years, except that grants to new recipients or to support new or innovative research may be made for fewer than five years.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The NIDRR Model Systems are specialized programs of care in spinal cord injury (SCI), traumatic brain injury (TBI), and burn injury, which gather information and conduct research with the goal of improving long-term functional, vocational, cognitive, and quality-of-life outcomes for individuals with disabilities in these areas. Model System grantees contribute data to national statistical centers that track the long-term consequences of SCI, TBI, and burn injuries, and conduct research in the areas of medical rehabilitation, health and wellness, service delivery, short- and long-term interventions, and systems research. Each Model System also is charged with disseminating information and research findings to patients, family members, health-care providers, educators, policymakers and the general public.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Specifically, this Model Systems program assists demonstration projects that provide comprehensive rehabilitation services to individuals with spinal cord injuries. Demonstration projects that support spinal cord research also are funded.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Awards support activities to increase the participation of low-income students in both pre-AP and AP courses and tests. Grants support the development, enhancement, or expansion of AP courses, including pre-AP courses aligned with AP courses in mathematics, science, English, and other subject areas. Allowable activities include:

1. Professional development for teachers;
2. Curriculum development;
3. The purchase of books and supplies; and
4. Other activities directly related to expanding access to and participation in AP courses and tests for low-income students.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Formula grants are made to the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico based on each state’s share of Title I, Part A, of Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA) funds. The outlying areas and the U.S. Department of the Interior’s BIE also receive funds.

These grants are designed to help SEAs ensure that homeless children, including preschoolers and youths, have equal access to public education. States must review and revise laws and practices that impede such access and are required to have an approved plan for addressing problems associated with the enrollment, attendance, and success of homeless children in school. The program supports an office for coordination of the education of homeless children and youths in each state, which gathers comprehensive information about homeless children and youths and the impediments they must overcome to attend school regularly.

States must use at least 75 percent of their allocations to make competitive subgrants to local education agencies (LEAs) to facilitate the enrollment, attendance, and success in school of homeless children and youths.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
With subgrant funds, LEAs provide a variety of educational and other services to homeless children and their families, including addressing problems due to transportation needs, immunization and residency requirements, lack of birth certificates and school records, and guardianship issues.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program provides financial assistance to LEAs and schools with high numbers or high percentages of children from low-income families to help ensure that low-achieving children meet challenging state academic standards. Federal funds are currently allocated through four statutory formulas that are based primarily on census poverty estimates and the cost of education in each state, as measured by each state’s expenditures per elementary and secondary student. These formulas are:

1. Basic Grants—these provide funds to LEAs in which the number of children counted in the formula is at least 10 and exceeds 2 percent of an LEA’s school-age population.
2. Concentration Grants—these flow to LEAs in which the number of formula children exceeds 6,500 or 15 percent of the total school-age population.
3. Targeted Grants—these are based on the same data used for Basic and Concentration Grants except that the data are weighted so that LEAs with higher numbers or higher percentages of formula children receive more funds. Targeted Grants flow to LEAs in which the number of children counted in the formula (without application of the formula weights) is at least 10 and at least 5 percent of the LEA’s school-age population.
4. Education Finance Incentive Grants (EFIGs)—these distribute funds to states based on factors that measure:
   a. A state’s effort to provide financial support for education compared to its relative wealth as measured by its per capita income; and
b. The degree to which education expenditures among LEAs within the state are equalized.

Once a state’s EFIG allocation is determined, funds are allocated (using a weighted count formula that is similar to Targeted Grants) to LEAs in which the number of formula children is at least 10 and at least 5 percent of the LEA’s school-age population.

LEAs target the Title I funds they receive to schools with the highest percentages of children from low-income families. Unless a participating school is operating a schoolwide program, the school must focus Title I services on children who are failing, or most at risk of failing, to meet state academic standards. Schools in which children from low-income families make up at least 40 percent of enrollment are eligible to use Title I funds for schoolwide programs that serve all children in the school. LEAs also must use Title I funds to provide academic enrichment services to eligible children enrolled in private schools.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
More than 50,000 public schools across the country use Title I funds to provide additional academic support and learning opportunities to help low-achieving children master challenging curricula and meet state standards in core academic subjects. For example, funds support extra instruction in reading and mathematics, as well as preschool, after-school, and summer programs to extend and reinforce the regular school curriculum for eligible children.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Title I, Part D, Subpart 1, State Agency Neglected and Delinquent program provides formula grants to SEAs that then make subgrants to state agencies. State agencies use funds for supplemental education services to help provide education continuity for children and youths in state-operated institutions for children and youths, in community day programs for neglected and delinquent children and youths, and in adult correctional institutions so that these children and youths can make successful transitions to school or employment once they are released.

The Subpart 2 Local Educational Agency Program requires each SEA to reserve, from its Title I, Part A, allocation, funds generated by the number of children and youths in local correctional facilities or attending community day programs for delinquent children and youths. Subgrants are awarded to LEAs with high numbers or percentages of children and youths residing in locally operated correctional facilities for children and youths (including community day programs) to support programs in these facilities or in the LEAs’ schools.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Grants support supplemental instruction in core subject areas, such as reading and mathematics, as well as tutoring, counseling, and transition services.

Program Description

This program is designed to improve the education of English Learner (EL) children and youths by helping them to learn English and meet challenging state academic content and student academic achievement standards. The program also provides enhanced instructional opportunities for immigrant children and youths. Funds are distributed to states based on a formula that takes into account each state’s share of EL and immigrant students.

Types of Projects

States must develop annual measurable achievement objectives for EL students that measure their success in achieving English language proficiency and meeting challenging state academic content and achievement standards. LEAs must provide language instruction educational programs and high-quality professional development. LEAs may develop and implement new language instruction programs and expand or enhance existing programs. LEAs also may implement schoolwide programs within individual schools or implement systemwide programs to restructure, reform, or upgrade all programs, activities, or operations related to the education of their EL students. Instructional approaches and methodologies must be founded on scientifically based research.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program provides grants to eligible entities that support language instruction education projects for English Learner (EL) children from Native American, Alaska Native, Native Hawaiian, and Pacific Islander backgrounds. The program is designed to ensure that EL children master English and meet the same rigorous standards for academic achievement that all children are expected to meet. Funds may support the study of Native American languages.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

PROGRAM REGULATIONS

34 CFR 691

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Higher Education Reconciliation Act of 2005 created two need-based grant programs to complement the Federal Pell Grant Program (# 84.063, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid):

1. Academic Competitiveness Grants (ACG), awarded to first- and second-year undergraduates who completed a rigorous high school curriculum (the Department posts a list of rigorous high school programs on the Web, see Links to Related Websites below). To receive an ACG, a first-year student must have completed secondary school after Jan. 1, 2006, and not have been enrolled in an ACG-eligible program while at or below the age of compulsory school attendance (unless the ACG-eligible classes were also part of his or her high school program). A second-year student must have completed secondary school after Jan. 1, 2005, and have at least a 3.0 grade point average (GPA) as of the end of the first year of undergraduate study.

2. National Science and Mathematics Access to Retain Talent (SMART) Grants, awarded to third-, fourth-, and fifth-year undergraduates who are majoring in technical fields, critical foreign languages, or who are in a qualifying liberal arts program. The student must have at least a 3.0 GPA for all classes taken in the program as of the most recently completed payment period.

To be eligible for either grant, a student must be eligible for a Pell Grant (see Federal Pell Grant Program, # 84.063, also under Federal Student Aid) for that award year (as indicated above) and be enrolled at least half-time.

WHO MAY APPLY (SPECIFICALLY)

Note: No new loans are being made under this program.

Previously, the following individuals could apply:

• Subsidized and Unsubsidized Stafford: Undergraduate, vocational, or graduate students who were enrolled at least half-time in participating schools.
• Federal PLUS: Graduate and professional students, and parents of dependent undergraduate students who were enrolled at least half-time in participating schools.
• Federal Consolidation: Individuals who had outstanding student loans and were in a grace period or repayment status.

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (BY CATEGORY)

Loans

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (SPECIFICALLY)

Assistance consisted of low-interest loans, made by private lenders to postsecondary students, subsidized and guaranteed by the U.S. Department of Education. The postsecondary institution had to certify the student’s eligibility for an FFEL loan, and ensure that the loan did not exceed annual and aggregate loan limits, and that the loan, in combination with other financial aid, did not exceed the student’s financial need.

APPROPRIATIONS

Fiscal Year 2010 -$1,701,415,000
Fiscal Year 2011 $0
Fiscal Year 2012 $0

Note: The appropriation amounts listed provided the federal subsidy costs that were associated with new FFEL guaranteed program loans for FY 2010 as shown; however, typically it is the volume of loans made that is more relevant to those seeking student aid. FFEL loan volume (aid available), including Federal Consolidation Loans, was $19.7 billion in FY 2010, $0 in FY 2011, and $0 in FY 2012.

The FFEL Program costs were estimated consistent with the Federal Credit Reform Act of 1990. A negative subsidy occurs when the present value of cash inflows to the government is estimated to exceed the present value of the outflows. For FY 2010, the FFEL Program reflects a total negative subsidy because net revenues, primarily from borrower and lender fees, exceed program costs.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS

34 CFR 682

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

As of July 1, 2010, no new loans are being made under the FFEL Program. The program provided loans to postsecondary students and to the parents of dependent students to promote access to postsecondary education. Eligible students could receive FFEL loans at any postsecondary institution that participated in the FFEL Program.

Students applied for FFEL loans (and apply for other student aid) by filing a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA can be completed on the Web at http://www.fafsa.ed.gov. For more information on the student aid award process, see the entry for the Federal Pell Grant Program (# 84.063, also under Federal Student Aid).

FFEL borrowers are eligible for loan cancellation for teacher service at low-income schools and under certain other limited conditions as provided in HEA. Students may defer repayment of the loan while enrolled (at least half-time) at a postsecondary school. A student or parent borrower who has difficulty repaying an FFEL loan should contact the lender to find out if he or she is eligible for a deferment or forbearance based on economic hardship or other conditions.

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (SPECIFICALLY)
Grants are based on financial need and primarily awarded to undergraduate students. Selection of recipients and the amount of awards are largely determined by federal rules (see Program Description below); the Department provides funds to the institution to fund all of its Pell-eligible students. PROGRAM REGULATIONS

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Federal Pell Grant Program provides need-based grants to low-income undergraduate students (and certain postbaccalaureate students) to promote access to postsecondary education. Students may use their grants at any one of approximately 5,400 participating postsecondary institutions. Students apply for Pell Grants (and other student aid) by filing a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA can be completed on the Web at http://www.fafsa.gov. The FAFSA collects information concerning the family’s income and assets, family size, and number of family members in college. Parental information is collected for most single undergraduate students under the age of 23.

The Department’s FAFSA processor uses a standard formula established by Congress to calculate an Expected Family Contribution (EFC) for that award year. In addition to sending a Student Aid Report (SAR) to the student, the FAFSA processor automatically sends the student’s information and the EFC to the schools that the student listed on the application. The school uses this and other information to determine the student’s eligibility for aid.

The Department releases a Pell Grant Payment Schedule prior to the start of each award year that sets award amounts based on education costs (including tuition, required fees, living expenses, etc.), the EFC calculated by the FAFSA processor, and the student’s enrollment status.

If the student is awarded a Pell Grant or other funds from the FSA programs, the institution will usually credit the funds to the student’s account to pay school charges, and pay any remaining amount to the student for other expenses. The institution must pay Pell Grants and most other FSA awards (except for Federal Work-Study; see # 84.033, Federal Work-Study Program, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid) in installments, on a payment period basis. For institutions using a traditional calendar, the payment period is the academic term (semester, trimester, or quarter); nonterm programs have two payment periods per academic year.

CURRENT COMPETITIONS

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (SPECIFICALLY)
The Department allocates FSEOG funds to participating postsecondary institutions to make grants to financially needy undergraduate students. FSEOG is one of two “campus-based programs” (see also Federal Work-Study (FWS) Program, # 84.033, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid). Unlike the Federal Pell Grant Program, the allocation for each campus-based program is a fixed amount for a specific school that is not automatically increased based on the number of student awards at that school.

The institution must follow federal regulations in awarding FSEOG funds to students, but it has substantial flexibility in determining the award amounts that best meet the needs of its FSEOG-eligible students. However, the institution must ensure that the FSEOG award does not exceed annual limits, and that the award, in combination with other financial aid, does not exceed the student’s financial need.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The FSEOG Program provides need-based grants to help low-income undergraduate students finance the costs of postsecondary education. Students can receive these grants at any one of approximately 3,800 participating postsecondary institutions. When making FSEOG awards, the institution must give priority to those students with “exceptional need” (those with the lowest Expected Family Contributions, or EFCs, at the institution) and those who are also Pell Grant recipients (see # 84.063, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid).

A participating institution applies each year for an FSEOG allocation by submitting a Fiscal Operations Report and Application to Participate (FISAP) to the U.S. Department of Education. Using a statutory formula, the Department allocates funds based on the institution’s previous funding level and the aggregate need of eligible students in attendance in the prior year. Institutions must contribute 25 percent of the award amounts.

Students must file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as part of the application process for an FSEOG. The FAFSA can be completed on the Web at http://www.fafsa.gov. For more information on FAFSA and the student aid award process, see the entry for the Federal...

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The FWS Program provides funds for part-time employment to help needy students to finance the costs of postsecondary education. Students can receive FWS funds at approximately 3,400 participating postsecondary institutions. Hourly wages must not be less than the federal minimum wage.

A participating institution applies each year for FWS funding by submitting a Fiscal Operations Report and Application to Participate (FISAP) to the U.S. Department of Education. Using a statutory formula, the Department allocates funds based on the institution’s previous funding level and the aggregate need of eligible students in attendance in the prior year. In most cases, the school or the employer must pay up to a 50 percent share of a student’s wages under FWS. (With some FWS jobs, such as reading or mathematics tutors, the federal contribution to the wages can be as high as 100 percent.)

Students may be employed by: the institution itself; a federal, state, or local public agency; a private nonprofit organization; or a private for-profit organization.

Institutions must use at least 7 percent of their Work-Study allocation to support students working in community service jobs, including: reading tutors for preschool age or elementary school children; mathematics tutors for students enrolled in elementary school through grade 9; literacy tutors in a family literacy project performing family literacy activities; or emergency preparedness and response. Students must file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as part of the application process for FWS assistance. The FAFSA can be completed on the Web at http://www.fafsa.ed.gov. Fiscal Year 2010 $33,852,000
Fiscal Year 2012 $0

Note: Pursuant to the Higher Education Act (HEA), Section 415A(b)(2), when the appropriation for the LEAP Program exceeded $30 million, the excess shall be available to carry out the GAP Program, authorized under HEA, Section 415E. GAP was created by the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA), which amended HEA in 2008, and replaced the SLEAP Program after a two-year transition period in which states could chose between the two programs. States were required to, at a minimum, match GAP grants two-for-one with state funds. The appropriations amounts shown are the excess available for GAP in each award year.

WHO MAY APPLY (BY CATEGORY)
Individuals

WHO MAY APPLY (SPECIFICALLY)
A student whose parent or guardian was a member of the Armed Forces who died as a result of performing military service in Iraq or Afghanistan after Sept. 11, 2001, and who is not eligible for a Pell Grant because his or her Expected Family Contribution is above the maximum for receipt of the Pell Grant. The student must meet the general eligibility requirements for a Pell Grant (see #84.063, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid), such as undergraduate status and status as a citizen or eligible noncitizen. The student must have been less than 24 years old or have been enrolled in an institution of higher education at the time of the parent or guardian’s death.

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (SPECIFICALLY)
This assistance is non-need-based grants that are awarded to eligible dependents of veterans who cannot receive a Pell Grant because of a high Expected Family Contribution. The Department provides funds to the institution to fund all of its IASG-eligible students. Like a Pell Grant, an IASG is considered the first source of financial aid, and consequently it is not reduced if the student receives additional aid from other sources.

LEGISLATIVE CITATION
Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA), as amended, Title IV, Part A, Subpart 1; 20 U.S.C. 1070h

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grants program provides non-need-based grants to students whose parent or guardian died as a result of military service in Iraq or Afghanistan after 9/11. An eligible student may use the grants at any one of approximately 5,400 participating postsecondary institutions.

To establish eligibility for the Service Grant, an eligible student must first apply for a Pell Grant (and other student aid) by filing a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA can be completed on the Web at http://www.fafsa.gov. If the resulting Expected Family Contribution is above the maximum for receipt of a Pell Grant, the student can receive an Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant in lieu of the Pell Grant.

The maximum Service Grant amount is equal to the maximum Pell Grant for a given award year, which is projected to be $5,550 for the 2012–13 award year. (Awards may not exceed the student’s cost of attendance, and are prorated for part-time enrollment.) Service Grants are excluded from the total “estimated financial assistance” used to determine a student’s eligibility for other aid from the Federal Student Aid programs.

APPROPRIATIONS
Fiscal Year 2010 $63,852,000
Fiscal Year 2011 $0
Fiscal Year 2012 $0

Note: No funds were appropriated for this program in FY 2012.

Each state’s allocation was based on its relative share of the total national population of students eligible to participate in the LEAP Program. If LEAP (formerly SSIG) appropriations are below 1979 levels, each state is allocated an amount proportional to the amount of funds it received in 1979. States were required, at a minimum, to match LEAP grants dollar-for-dollar with state funds. If a state did not use all of its allocation, the excess funds were distributed to other states in the same proportion as the original distribution.

Pursuant to Section 415A(b)(2) of the Higher Education Act (HEA), when the appropriation for the LEAP Program exceeded $30 million, the excess would be available to carry out either the Special Leveraging Educational Assistance Partnership (SLEAP) Program (see # 84.069B, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid) or, beginning in FY 2009, Grants for Access and Persistence (GAP) (see # 84.069B also under topical heading Federal Student Aid), authorized under HEA, Section 415E. GAP was created by the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA), which amended HEA in 2008, with GAP replacing SLEAP after a two-year transition period in which states can choose between the two programs. Appropriation levels above reflect the entire appropriation for LEAP, including funds available for SLEAP and GAP.

WHO MAY APPLY (BY CATEGORY)

WHO MAY APPLY (SPECIFICALLY)
Undergraduate and graduate students who attend eligible institutions and are enrolled in an academic program that prepares them to be highly qualified teachers in a high-need field may apply. In most cases, the student must have a grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.25 (on a 0 to 4.0 scale) or receive a qualifying score on an admission test. (There are exceptions for graduate students who are current or former teachers, or who are retirees in certain high-need fields.)

Recipients must sign an agreement to teach in qualifying schools and subject areas (see Program Description for more) for at least four years, and to complete that teaching service within eight years of graduation. If the student does not fulfill the teaching service requirement, the grant amount must be repaid as a Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan (see William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program, # 84.268, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid, for more on Direct Loans).

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (SPECIFICALLY)
TEACH Grants are merit-based grants awarded through participating institutions to students who have financial need and are planning to become teachers in high-need areas. In addition to documenting that the student meets the academic qualifications, the postsecondary institution must ensure that the TEACH grant, in combination with other financial aid, does not exceed the student’s financial need.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The TEACH Grant Program provides merit-based grants to students who agree to teach full-time for four years at a low-income school, in such high-need fields as: mathematics, science, foreign language, bilingual education, special education, or reading. The four years of required service must be completed within eight years of graduation. For students who fail to fulfill this service requirement, grants are converted to Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loans, with interest accrued from the date the grants were disbursed.

Students must file a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as part of the application process for TEACH grants. The FAFSA can be completed on the Web at http://www.fafsa.gov. For more information on the student aid award process, see the entry for the Federal Pell Grant Program (# 84.063, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid).

If the TEACH grant converts to a loan, the recipient has the same right to deferments and cancellation as any Direct Unsubsidized Loan borrower (see # 84.268, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid).

WHO MAY APPLY (SPECIFICALLY)
The following may apply:

- Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized Stafford loans: Undergraduate, vocational, or graduate/professional students who will be enrolled at least half-time in participating schools. Graduate/professional students, beginning July 1, 2012, will no longer be eligible for Direct Subsidized Stafford loans.
- Direct PLUS: Graduate and professional students, and parents of dependent undergraduate students who will be enrolled at least half-time in participating schools.
- Direct Consolidation: Individuals who have outstanding student loans and are in a grace period or repayment status.

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (BY CATEGORY)
Loans

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (SPECIFICALLY)
These are loans that the U.S. Department of Education makes to postsecondary students. The postsecondary institution must certify the student’s eligibility for a Direct Loan, and ensure that the loan does not exceed annual and aggregate loan limits, and that the loan, in combination with other financial aid, does not exceed the student’s financial need.
APPROPRIATIONS
Fiscal Year 2010  -$8,632,536,982
Fiscal Year 2011  -$21,759,700,643
Fiscal Year 2012  -$29,519,352,629

Note: The appropriations amounts listed provide the federal subsidy costs associated with new Direct Loans each fiscal year. It is the volume of loans made, however, that is often more relevant to those seeking student aid. Loan volume, including Direct Consolidation Loans, was $101.8 billion in FY 2010, $132.7 billion in FY 2011, and is estimated to be $178.2 billion in FY 2012.

The Direct Loan Program costs are estimated consistent with the Federal Credit Reform Act of 1990. A negative subsidy occurs when the present value of cash inflows to the government is estimated to exceed the present value of the outflows. In FY 2010, FY 2011, and FY 2012, the Direct Loan Program reflects a total negative subsidy due, in part, to reduced discount rates that lower the federal government’s borrowing costs, while borrower repayments contribute to increased cash flows as collections to the federal government, helping to offset federal costs.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
34 CFR 685

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Direct Loan Program provides loans to postsecondary students and to the parents of dependent students to promote access to postsecondary education. Eligible students may receive Direct Loans at any postsecondary institution that participates in the Direct Loan Program. Students apply for Direct Loans (and other student aid) by filing a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA can be completed on the Web at http://www.fafsa.gov. For more information on the student aid award process, see the entry for the Federal Pell Grant Program (#84.063, also under topical heading Federal Student Aid). To borrow a Direct Loan, the student (or parent PLUS borrower) also must have completed a Master Promissory Note (MPN), which can be used to receive Direct Loans over multiple years of postsecondary study. Direct Loan borrowers are eligible for loan cancellation or forgiveness under certain conditions listed on the MPN. Students may defer repayment of the loan while enrolled (at least half-time) at a postsecondary school. A student or parent borrower who has difficulty repaying a Direct Loan should contact the Direct Loan Servicing Center (see Links to Related Websites below for more information) to find out if he or she is eligible for a deferment or forbearance based on economic hardship or other conditions.

Loan Type | Characteristics | Interest Rate for New Loans
--- | --- | ---
Direct Subsidized Stafford | Student is not liable for interest when in school and during periods of grace and deferment. (See note at end of table) | 7/1/11–6/30/12: 3.4% for undergraduate loans; 6.8% for graduate/professional loans. On/after 7/1/12: 6.8% for undergraduate loans; no graduate/professional loans.
Direct Unsubsidized Stafford | Student is liable for interest when in school and during periods of grace and deferment | 6.8%
Federal PLUS | Enables parents to borrow to pay the costs of higher education for their dependent undergraduates, and graduate students to pay their costs | 7.9%
Federal Consolidation | Combines one or more federal education loans into a single loan | Weighted average of loans rounded upward to nearest 1/8%; capped at 8.25%

Note: Interest will accrue during the grace period for Direct Subsidized Stafford loans originated between July 1, 2012, and June 30, 2014, for which borrowers will be liable.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The CACG Program is a formula grant program in which funds are awarded based on the relative number of people in each state between the ages of 5 and 17 and between the ages of 15 and 44 who are living below the poverty line.
This program fosters partnerships among federal, state, and local governments and philanthropic organizations through matching challenge grants that are aimed at increasing the number of low-income students who are prepared to enter and succeed in postsecondary education.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
CACG Program grant projects are authorized to implement an array of programs and strategies to ensure access to and participation in postsecondary education for underserved populations. Some of these activities include: the dissemination of information pertaining to postsecondary education benefits and opportunities, career preparation, outreach activities, need-based grant aid, and professional development for middle and high school counselors as well as financial aid and admissions counselors at institutions of higher education (IHEs).

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program supports projects that provide counseling and information on college admissions to qualified adults who want to enter or continue a program of postsecondary education. An important objective of the program is to counsel participants on financial aid options and assist in the application process by providing basic financial planning skills. The goal of the EOC program is to increase the number of adult participants who enroll in postsecondary education institutions.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects include providing:
- Academic advice assistance in course selection, personal counseling, and career workshops;
- Information on postsecondary education opportunities and student financial assistance;
- Assistance in completing applications for college admissions, testing, and financial aid;
- Education or counseling services to improve financial and economic literacy;
- Coordination with nearby postsecondary institutions;
- Public information designed to inform the community about higher education opportunities;
- Tutoring;
- Mentoring;
- Career workshops and counseling;
- Guidance on secondary school reentry or entry to a General Educational Development (GED) program or other alternative education program for secondary school dropouts; and
- Academic advice and assistance in course selection.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This discretionary grant program is designed to increase the number of low-income students prepared to enter and succeed in postsecondary education. GEAR UP provides six- or seven-year grants to states and partnerships to provide services at high-poverty middle and high schools. GEAR UP Partnership grantees serve an entire cohort of students beginning no later than grade 7 and follow the cohort through high school. GEAR UP state grantees must either serve these cohorts of students or other priority students identified in the statute. GEAR UP funds also are used to provide college scholarships to low-income students served by the projects.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
GEAR UP offers state and partnership grants. State grants are competitive six- or seven-year matching grants that must include both an early intervention component designed to increase college attendance and success and raise the expectations of low-income students, as well as a scholarship component. Partnership grants are competitive six- or seven-year matching grants that must support an early intervention component and may support a scholarship component designed to increase college attendance and success, and raise low-income students’ expectations.

LEGISLATIVE CITATION
Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA), as amended, Title III, Part D

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The goal of the program is to provide low-cost capital to finance improvements to the infrastructure of the nation’s HBCUs. Specifically, the program provides HBCUs with access to capital financing or refinancing for the repair, renovation, and construction of classrooms, libraries, laboratories, dormitories, instructional equipment, and research apparatus. The program’s authorizing statute (see Legislative Citation above) limits the total amount of loans and accrued interest available through the program to $1.1 billion. This assistance comes through the issuance of the federal guarantee upon full payment of principal and interest on qualified bonds, the proceeds of which are used for loans.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
The loan proceeds of the HBCU Capital Financing Program can be used for repair, renovation or, in exceptional circumstances, for the construction or acquisition of:

- Any classroom facility, library, laboratory facility, dormitory (including dining facilities) or other facility customarily used by colleges and universities for instructional or research purposes or for housing students, faculty, and staff, and any real property or interest therein underlying such facilities;
- Instructional equipment, technology, research instrumentation, and any capital equipment or fixture related to the above facilities;
- A facility designed to provide primarily outpatient health care for students or faculty;
- Any other facility, equipment or fixture which is essential to the maintaining of accreditation of the member institution by an accrediting agency or association recognized by the secretary under Title IV, Part H, Subpart 2, of HEA, as amended, and any real property or interest therein underlying such facilities;
• A maintenance, storage, or utility facility that is essential to the operation of a facility, a library, a dormitory, equipment, instrumentation, a fixture, or real property described above; or
• Physical infrastructure essential to support the projects authorized under the program, including roads, sewer and drainage systems, and water, power, lighting, telecommunications, and other utilities.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Howard University was established in 1867 as a federally chartered, private, nonprofit education institution. As a comprehensive, research-oriented, predominantly African-American university, its mission is to provide a high-quality educational experience at a reasonable cost. The annual appropriation for Howard University provides partial support for construction, development, improvement, endowment, and maintenance of the university and the Howard University Hospital. Howard University has discretion in allocating funds for its academic, research, and endowment programs, and for its construction activities.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Funding supports three areas:

• Academic Programs—academic programs, research, and construction for the university, including a wide range of administrative, library, computer, and technology resources for the university;
• Endowment Program—matching support to Howard University’s endowment, which assists the university in increasing its financial strength and independence by stimulating private contributions; and
• Howard University Hospital—a major acute and ambulatory care center as well as a teaching and training hospital in Washington, D.C.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

A total of 18 historically black colleges and universities are eligible to receive funding to improve graduate education opportunities at the master’s level in mathematics, engineering, physical or natural sciences, computer science, information technology, nursing, allied health or other scientific disciplines in which African-American students are underrepresented.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

Institutions may use the funds for:

1. Purchase, rental, or lease of scientific or laboratory equipment for educational purposes, including instructional and research purposes;
2. Construction, maintenance, renovation and improvement of classroom, library, laboratory and other instructional facilities, including purchase or rental of telecommunications technology equipment or services;
3. Purchase of library books, periodicals, technical and other scientific journals, microfilm, microfiche, and other educational materials, including telecommunications program materials;
4. Scholarships, fellowships, and other financial assistance for needy graduate students to permit the enrollment of students in, and completion by students of, a master’s degree in mathematics, engineering, physical or natural sciences, computer science, information technology, nursing, allied health, or other scientific disciplines in which African-Americans are underrepresented;
5. Establishing or improving a development office to strengthen and increase contributions from alumni and the private sector;
6. Assisting in the establishment or maintenance of an institutional endowment to facilitate financial independence pursuant to Section 331 of HEA;
7. Funds and administrative management, and the acquisition of equipment, including software, for use in strengthening funds management and management information systems;
8. Acquisition of real property that is adjacent to the campus in connection with the construction, renovation, improvement of, or addition to, campus facilities;
9. Educational or financial information designed to improve the financial literacy and economic literacy of students or the students’ families, especially with regards to student indebtedness and student assistance programs under Title IV of HEA;
10. Tutoring, counseling, and student service programs designed to improve academic success;
11. Faculty professional development, faculty exchanges, and faculty participation in professional conferences and meetings; and

Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA), as amended, Title III, Part A, Section 318; 20 U.S.C. 1059e

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The purpose of this program is to assist eligible institutions in expanding educational opportunity through a program of federal assistance to plan, develop, undertake, and implement programs to enhance the institution’s capacity to serve more low- and middle-income black American students; to expand higher education opportunities for eligible students by encouraging college preparation and student persistence in secondary school and postsecondary education; and to strengthen the financial ability of the institution to serve the academic needs of these students.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Institutions may use federal funds for the activities that include:

- Academic instruction in disciplines in which black Americans are underrepresented;
- Establishing or enhancing a program of teacher education designed to qualify students to teach in a public elementary school or secondary school in the state that shall include, as a part of each program, preparation for teacher certification or licensure;
- Establishing community outreach programs that will encourage elementary and secondary school students to develop the academic skills and the interest to pursue postsecondary education.
- Purchase, rental, or lease of scientific or laboratory equipment for educational purposes, including instructional and research purposes;
- Construction, maintenance, renovation, and improvement in classrooms, libraries, laboratories, and other instructional facilities, including the integration of computer technology into institutional facilities to create smart buildings;
- Support of faculty exchanges, faculty development, and faculty fellowships to assist in attaining advanced degrees in the field of instruction of the faculty;
- Development and improvement of academic programs;
- Purchase of library books, periodicals, and other educational materials, including telecommunications program material;
- Tutoring, counseling, and student service programs designed to improve academic success, including innovative, customized, instruction courses designed to help retain students and move the students rapidly into core courses and through program completion, which may include remedial education and English language instruction;
- Education or counseling services designed to improve the financial literacy and economic literacy of students or the students’ families;
- Funds management, administrative management, and acquisition of equipment for use in strengthening funds management;
- Joint use of facilities, such as laboratories and libraries;
- Establishing or improving an endowment fund; and
- Creating or improving facilities for Internet or other distance learning technologies, including purchase or rental of telecommunications technology equipment or services.

Program projects also may provide grant aid to current SSS participants who are receiving Federal Pell Grants (see # 84.063, under Federal Student Aid). The goal of SSS is to increase the college retention and graduation rates of its participants and help students make the transition from one level of higher education to the next.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects include:
• Instruction in basic study skills;
• Tutorial services;
• Academic, financial, or personal counseling;
• Assistance in securing admission and financial aid for enrollment in four-year institutions;
• Assistance in securing admission and financial aid for enrollment in graduate and professional programs;
• Guidance about career options;
• Services to improve financial and economic literacy; and
• Mentoring and special services for students with limited English proficiency (LEP).

Teachers for a Competitive Tomorrow: Baccalaureate STEM and Foreign Language Teacher Training

This program supported the development and implementation of programs to provide integrated courses of study in science, technology, engineering, mathematics, or a critical foreign language, with concurrent teacher certification.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
TCT-B grants were designed to enable grantees to develop and implement programs to provide courses of study in STEM fields or critical foreign languages that are integrated with teacher education. Graduates of these programs received baccalaureate degrees in STEM fields or critical foreign languages, concurrent with teacher certification. There was an absolute priority for projects to focus primarily on placing graduates in high-need schools. Required uses of funds included providing students with quality clinical experiences, offering training in the use and integration of educational technology, and providing graduates with ongoing activities and services.

LEGISLATIVE CITATION
Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA), as amended, Title VIII; 20 U.S.C. 7701–7714

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
34 CFR 222

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Impact Aid program provides financial support to school districts affected by federal activities. The presence of certain children living on federal property across the country may place a financial burden on the school districts that educate them. The property on which these children live is exempt from local property taxes, denying districts access to the primary source of revenue used by most communities to finance education. Impact Aid helps to replace the lost local revenue that otherwise would be available to districts to pay for the education of these children. Several different kinds of payments are supported as described below.

Section 8002 of ESEA provides payments for federal property to assist LEAs that have lost a portion of their local tax base because of federal ownership of property. To be eligible, a school district must demonstrate that the federal government has acquired, since 1938, real property with an aggregate assessed valuation of at least 10 percent of all real property in the district at the time of acquisition.

Section 8003 of ESEA provides payments to assist LEAs that educate significant numbers of federally connected children. These may be the children of members of the uniformed services, children who live on Indian lands, children who live on federal property or federally subsidized low-rent housing, and children whose parents work on federal property. Section 8003 grants include additional payments for federally connected children with disabilities who are eligible under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).

Section 8007(b) of ESEA provides competitive grants for emergency repairs and modernization of school facilities to certain LEAs that receive Impact Aid. Emergency repair grants must be used to repair, renovate, or alter a public elementary or secondary school facility to ensure the health, safety, and well-being of students and school personnel. Modernization grants may be used to extend a public elementary or secondary school facility to ease overcrowding and provide facilities that support a contemporary educational program.

The U.S. Department of Education owns a limited number of school facilities that are operated by LEAs that serve military installations. Section 8008 grants help maintain these federally owned school facilities and restore or improve them where appropriate to enable an LEA to accept ownership. The Department directly oversees these construction projects, unless the LEA has agreed... to accept transfer of the facility, in which case funds may be provided to the LEA to complete the project after the transfer.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

Eligibility for Basic Support and Federal Property Payments is determined on an annual basis through applications that school districts submit. Payments generally are deposited in eligible LEAs’ general fund accounts and are used for basic operating costs within the LEA, including teacher salaries, utilities, books, and supplies.

For Payments for Children with Disabilities (Section 8003(d) of ESEA), any LEA that is eligible to receive basic support payments on behalf of federally connected children also may receive a payment for children with disabilities who are military dependents or who live on Indian lands. Eligibility is determined on an annual basis through applications submitted by school districts. Payments are used for the special education costs incurred by the LEAs. Some funding flows indirectly to private schools in those LEAs that pay tuition to private institutions for the education of disabled students whose Individualized Education Programs (IEPs) require such special services.

Under Facilities Maintenance (Section 8008 of ESEA), funds are provided for emergency repairs and comprehensive capital improvements to schools that the Department of Education owns but that LEAs use to serve federally connected military-dependent students. These funds also may support the transfer of these federal facilities to LEAs.

Under Discretionary Construction (Section 8007(b)), eligible LEAs apply on a competitive basis for grant awards to enable them to carry out emergency repairs and modernization of school facilities.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program is designed to improve the educational opportunities and achievement of preschool, elementary, and secondary school Indian children by developing, testing, and demonstrating effective services and programs.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

For several years, the absolute funding priorities for the program have limited project services to:

1. School readiness projects that provide age-appropriate educational programs and language skills to 3- and 4-year-old Indian students to prepare them for successful entry into school at the kindergarten level; and

2. College preparatory programs for secondary school students designed to increase competency and skills in challenging subject matter, including mathematics and science, to enable Indian students to transition to postsecondary education.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The National Activities authority funds research, evaluation, and data collection to provide information on the education status of the Indian population and on the effectiveness of Indian education programs. This authority enables the U.S. Department of Education to improve the national knowledge base on the education status and needs of Indians and to identify and disseminate information on best practices for serving this population.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
The Department uses these funds, primarily through contracts, to support research, evaluation, and data collection on the status and effectiveness of Indian education programs, and for other activities and programs to improve the education of American Indians and Alaska Natives, age preschool through adult.

The STEP pilot will provide grants to promote increased collaboration between TEAs and SEAs in the administration of state-administered formula grants programs under ESEA.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The program provides short-term study and travel seminars abroad for U.S. educators and administrators in the social sciences and humanities for the purpose of improving their understanding and knowledge of the peoples and cultures of other countries. Support generally is made available through interagency agreements. The U.S. Department of Education transfers funds through the U.S. Department of State to Fulbright commissions in various countries to pay the costs associated with administering the seminars. This partnership allows this program to use the services and expertise of binational organizations to plan and conduct seminars for U.S. educators.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program provides grants to develop innovative techniques and programs that address national teaching and research needs in international education and foreign languages by using technologies to access, collect, organize, preserve, and widely disseminate information from foreign sources on world regions and countries other than the United States.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Grants may be used to:
- Acquire, facilitate access to, or preserve foreign information resources in, print or electronic forms;
- Develop new means of immediate, full-text document delivery for information and scholarship from abroad;
- Develop new means of, or standards for, shared electronic access to international data;
- Support collaborative projects for indexing, cataloging, and providing other means of bibliographic access for scholars to important research materials published or distributed outside the United States;
- Develop methods for the wide dissemination of resources written in non-Roman alphabets;
- Assist teachers of less commonly taught languages in acquiring, via electronic and other means, materials suitable for classroom use;
- Promote collaborative technology-based projects in foreign languages, area studies, and international studies among grant recipients under Title VI of HEA; and
- Support other eligible activities consistent with the purposes and intent of the legislation.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Funds support high-quality education programs for migratory children and help ensure that migratory children who move among states are not penalized in any manner by disparities among states in curriculum, graduation requirements, or state academic content and student academic achievement standards. Funds also ensure that migratory children not only are provided with appropriate education services (including supportive services) that address their special needs but also that such children receive full and appropriate opportunities to meet the same challenging state academic content and student academic achievement standards that all children are expected to meet. Federal funds are allocated by formula to SEAs, based on each state’s per-pupil expenditure for education and counts of eligible migratory children, age 3 through 21, residing within the state.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
States use program funds to provide instructional services (e.g., educational activities for pre-K children, instruction in elementary and secondary school, and recovery services for out-of-school youths) and support services (e.g., education-related activities, such as advocacy for migratory children and health, nutrition, and social services for migrant families). States also may use program funds for allowable activities, which include, but are not limited to, identification and recruitment, parental involvement, program evaluation, professional development, and administration of the program.

CAMP assists students who are migrant or seasonal farmworkers and members of their immediate families enrolled full-time in their first year of undergraduate studies at an IHE. The funding supports completion of the first year of studies. Competitive five-year grants for CAMP projects are made to IHEs or to nonprofit private agencies that cooperate with such institutions. The grants funded under CAMP grantees serve approximately 2,000 participants each year.

Types of Projects

Services include counseling, tutoring, skills workshops, financial aid stipends, health services, and housing assistance to eligible students during their first year of college. Limited follow-up services are provided to participants after their first year. Students must be enrolled on a full-time basis.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS

EDGAR; 34 CFR 200; FAR (for contracts issued under this program)

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Coordination funds are used to provide grants and contracts to improve the interstate and intrastate coordination of migrant education programs.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

Grants and contracts supported through these coordination funds may include:

1. Consortium Incentive Grants, which assist SEAs in improving the delivery of services to migrant children whose education has been interrupted. SEAs may use CIG funds for:
   • Improving the identification and recruitment of eligible migrant children;
   • Using scientifically based research to implement activities to improve school readiness;
   • Improving reading and math proficiency;
   • Carrying out activities to increase high school completion rates and reduce the dropout rate;
   • Strengthening the involvement of parents;
   • Expanding access to innovative technologies; and
   • Carrying out activities to improve the educational attainment of out-of-school migratory youths.

2. The Migrant Education Coordination Support contract, a logistical support contract to organize and implement effective meetings and recommend and procure subject matter experts in support of national interstate coordination initiatives.

3. The Migrant Student Information Exchange (MSIX), which links state migrant student record systems to electronically exchange academic and health-related information on a national basis.

4. The MSIX IV&V and Management Support contract, which provides independent oversight of the MSIX contractors’ performance and assistance with investment acquisition, management, and oversight activities.

5. The MSIX State Data Quality Grants, which provide additional resources to SEAs receiving MEP Basic State Formula Grant awards in order to assist them and their local operating agencies (LOAs) in implementing the interstate exchange of migrant children’s records electronically through the MSIX.

6. RESULTS contract, which supports intra- and interstate coordination efforts by (a) enhancing communication between states, (b) producing a literature review related to the MEP, (c) conducting intra- and interstate meetings and presentations, and (d) providing logistical and technical support for the Office of Migrant Education annual conference.

7. The Records Exchange Advice, Communication, and Technical Support (REACTS) contract, which provides technical assistance to SEAs through state site visits, newsletters, listserv messages, and website tools on the implementation of the records exchange initiative.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program helps migrant and seasonal farmworkers and members of their immediate families, who are 16 years of age or older and not currently enrolled in school, to obtain the equivalent of a high school diploma and, subsequently, to gain employment or begin postsecondary education or training. The program serves more than 7,000 students annually. Competitive awards are made for up to five years of funding.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

HEP participants receive developmental instruction and counseling services intended to prepare them to:

1. Complete the requirements for high school graduation or for General Educational Development (GED) certificates;
2. Pass standardized tests of high school equivalency; and
3. Participate in subsequent postsecondary education and career activities.

The major support services offered through HEP are counseling, job placement, health care, preparation for college entrance examinations, financial aid stipends, housing for residential students, and exposure to cultural and academic programs not usually available to migrant participants.

Note: No funds were appropriated for this program in FY 2011 or FY 2012. In FY 2010 and previous fiscal years, funds were awarded to SEAs on the basis of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, Title I, Part A, formula. SEAs awarded subgrants to local partnerships on a competitive basis. Appropriations included funds for grants to SEAs, as well as for Even Start grants to the outlying areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) and for set-asides for the Migrant Education Program—Even Start (see # 84.214A, under topical heading Migrant Education) and Even Start Family Literacy Program Grants for Indian Tribes and Tribal Organizations (see # 84.258, also under topical heading Reading). The statute also authorized a grant to a women’s prison and, in years in which the appropriation increased over the previous year, the statute also authorized $1 million for competitive grants to states for Even Start Statewide Family Literacy Initiatives (# 84.314B).

EDGAR; 34 CFR 74, 75, 76, 77, 80, 81, 82, 84, 85, 86, 97, 98, and 99

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program authorized grants to states for subgrants that support local family literacy projects. Local projects integrate early childhood education, adult literacy (adult basic and secondary-level education and instruction for English learners), parenting education, and interactive parent and child literacy activities for low-income families with parents who are eligible for services under the Adult Education and Family Literacy Act (AEFLA) and their children from birth through age 7. Teen parents and their children from birth through age 7 also are eligible. All participating families must be those most in need of program services.

Five percent of the annual appropriation was set aside for family literacy grants for migratory worker families, the outlying areas, and Indian tribes and tribal organizations. In addition, the U.S. Department of Education was required to award one grant to a project located in a women’s prison; awarding this grant was a one-time, not an annual, requirement. Up to 3 percent of the annual appropriation was reserved for national evaluation and technical assistance. The remaining funds were allocated by formula to SEAs based on their relative shares of Title I, Part A, funds. SEAs made competitive subgrants to partnerships of LEAs and other organizations and agencies, giving priority to proposals that primarily target areas with large numbers of most-in-need families or to projects located in empowerment zones or enterprise communities. The statute also requires that subgrants be equitably distributed among urban and rural areas and that local projects assume an increasing share of program costs each year. The increasing share of the program expenses ranges from 10 percent in the first year to 40 percent in the fourth year. Cost sharing for the fifth through eighth years is 50 percent, and, after the eighth year of federal Even Start funding, the cost share is at least 65 percent.
TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects provide for early childhood education, adult literacy (adult basic and secondary-level education and instruction for English learners), parenting education, and interactive parent-child literacy activities for participating families, often through other entities providing these services, such as government agencies, colleges and universities, public schools, Head Start programs, and other public and private community-based groups. Projects operate year-round and provide staff training and support services, such as child care and transportation, when unavailable from other sources, to enable participation in core education activities.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The purpose of this program is to help break the cycle of poverty and illiteracy by improving education opportunities for low-income families. This program integrates early childhood education, adult literacy, adult basic education, parenting education, and interactive parent-child literacy activities into a unified family literacy program for federally recognized Indian tribes and tribal organizations.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects provide integrated family literacy services that include: research-based early childhood education; adult literacy (adult basic and secondary-level education and instruction for English learners); parenting education; and interactive parent-child literacy activities for eligible families, often through other entities providing these services, such as Head Start programs and other public and private community-based groups. Projects operate year-round, including the summer months, and provide staff training and support services, such as child care and transportation—when unavailable from other sources—to enable participation in core educational activities.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program awarded a contract to RIF to provide aid to local nonprofit groups and volunteer organizations that serve low-income children through book distribution and reading motivation activities.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
RIF enters into agreements with local nonprofit private groups or organizations and public agencies to administer free book distributions and reading motivation activities. Federal funds provided up to 75 percent of the cost of the books, with the balance obtained from private and local sources. Migrant programs were eligible to receive funding for up to 100 percent of their costs. In selecting projects, priority was required to be given to those that will serve a substantial number or percentage of children of low-income families. Priority also was required to be given to projects that supported those at risk of school failure, those who are disabled, those who are homeless, and those who have certain other special needs as indicated in the statute.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Striving Readers program provides grants to eligible entities to support efforts to improve literacy instruction in high-need schools. The FY 2010 appropriations language changed Striving Readers from an adolescent literacy program to a comprehensive literacy development and education program intended to advance the literacy skills, including pre-literacy skills, reading, and writing, of students from birth through grade 12.

From the total FY 2012 Striving Readers Comprehensive Literacy appropriation, the Department has reserved:
1. One-half of 1 percent for grants to the Department of the Interior’s Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) and one-half of 1 percent for the outlying areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands); and
2. Up to 5 percent for national activities.

The remaining funds will be used to award continuations of the competitive grants awarded to SEAs in FY 2011.

Each SEA that received a competitive grant awarded at least 95 percent of its allocation competitively to local education agencies (LEAs) or, for the purposes of providing early literacy services, to LEAs or other eligible nonprofit providers of early childhood education that partner with a public or private nonprofit organization or agency. To be eligible for a subgrant, a nonprofit provider of early childhood education must have demonstrated a record of effectiveness in improving the early literacy development of children from birth through kindergarten entry and in providing professional development in early literacy. SEAs must give priority to entities serving greater numbers or percentages of disadvantaged children. SEAs are required to ensure that at least 15 percent of the subgranted funds were used to serve children from birth through age 5; 40 percent were allocated to serve students in kindergarten through grade 5; and 40 percent allocated to serve students in middle and high school. Further, within the 40 percent dedicated to serve students in middle and high school, SEAs must equitably distribute funds between the two grade ranges.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Grantees will use funds to implement a comprehensive literacy program to advance literacy skills, including pre-literacy skills, reading, and writing, for students from birth through grade 12, including limited English proficient students and students with disabilities. These funds will be used for services and activities that have characteristics of effective literacy instruction. Examples of such activities include professional development, screening and assessment, targeted interventions for students reading below grade level, and other research-based methods of improving classroom instruction and practice for all students.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The State Grant for Assistive Technology Program (# 84.224A) supports state efforts to improve the provision of assistive technology to individuals with disabilities of all ages through comprehensive, statewide programs that are consumer responsive. The Assistive Technology State Grant Program makes assistive technology devices and services more available and accessible to individuals with disabilities and their families. The program provides one grant to each of the states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the outlying areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands).

The National Activities program (# 84.224B) provides information and technical assistance through grants, contracts, or cooperative agreements, on a competitive basis, to individuals, service providers, states, protection and advocacy entities, and others to support and improve the implementation of the AT Act.

Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Rehabilitation Act), as amended, Section 303(b); 29 U.S.C. 773(b)
This program provides competitive grants to eligible entities to expand and improve the provision of rehabilitation and other services authorized under the Rehabilitation Act. Funding also is provided to further the purposes and policies of the Act. More specifically, the program supports activities that increase the provision, extent, availability, scope, and quality of rehabilitation services under the Act. Section 303 authorizes support of activities serving individuals with disabilities in an array of project types. These diverse projects may include effective practices that demonstrate methods of service delivery to individuals with disabilities, as well as such activities as technical assistance, systems change, model demonstration, special studies and evaluations, and dissemination and utilization of findings from successful, previously funded projects. Such expansions and improvement of rehabilitation and other services will lead to more employment outcomes for individuals with disabilities.

Types of projects include model demonstration projects, technical assistance centers, systems-change projects, field initiated demonstrations, and literacy demonstrations. In addition, this program supports grants for Braille Training (# 84.235E) and Parent Information and Training programs (# 84.235F and # 84.235G, both also under topical heading Rehabilitation). FY 2010 funds also supported a new Model Demonstration Project to Improve Outcomes for Individuals on Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) served by State Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) Agencies (# 84.235L), which has continued in FY 2011 and FY 2012.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Center provides services on a national basis to individuals who are deaf-blind, their families, and service providers through a national headquarters center with a residential training and rehabilitation facility and a network of 10 regional field offices. These field offices provide referral, counseling, and transition assistance for individuals who are deaf-blind, and technical assistance and training for service providers. In FY 2011, the center served 62 adult training clients and provided short-term training to 16 clients at its headquarters programs. In addition, the center reported that in FY 2011 regional programs served 1,478 consumers, 441 families, and 881 organizations and agency service providers, with a broad spectrum of services, including consultation, referral, and counseling for individuals who are deaf-blind; training and technical assistance for state and local service agency staff; and general technical assistance and community advocacy related to independent living and employment.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
The program provides training and counseling to individual consumers and training and technical assistance to service providers. The program also supports short-term training for youths in high school, a service project for elderly deaf-blind persons, a national parent and family services project, and an international internship program for professionals in the field of deaf-blindness.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Grants are made to states to support independent living services for individuals age 55 or older whose severe visual impairment makes competitive employment difficult to obtain but for whom independent living goals are feasible.
TYPES OF PROJECTS
Funds are used to: provide independent living services to older individuals who are blind; conduct activities that will improve or expand services for these individuals; and conduct activities to improve public understanding of the problems facing these individuals. For example, services are provided to help persons served under this program adjust to their blindness by increasing their ability to care for their individual needs.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program offers formula grants to states for the following purposes:

- To provide resources to statewide independent living councils (SILCs);
- To provide independent living (IL) services to individuals with significant disabilities;
- To demonstrate ways to expand and improve IL services;
- To support the operation of centers for IL that comply with the standards and assurances of Section 725 of the Rehabilitation Act;
- To support activities to increase the capabilities of public or nonprofit agencies and organizations and other entities in developing comprehensive approaches or systems for providing IL services;
- To conduct studies and analyses and gather information, develop model policies and procedures, and present information, approaches, strategies, findings, conclusions, and recommendations for federal, state, and local policymakers to enhance IL services for individuals with significant disabilities;
- To provide training on the IL philosophy; and,
- To provide outreach to populations that are unserved or underserved by programs under Title VII of the Rehabilitation Act, including minority groups and urban and rural populations.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

This program supports projects that provide IL services, directly or through grants or contracts, and demonstrate ways to expand and improve them.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
EDGAR, as applicable
The purpose of the NTID is to promote the employment of persons who are deaf by providing technical and professional education for the nation's young people who are deaf. The U.S. Department of Education maintains an agreement with its host institution, the Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT), to operate a residential facility for postsecondary technical training and education for individuals who are deaf. The purpose of the relationship with the host institution is to provide NTID and its students with access to more facilities, institutional services, and career preparation options than could be provided otherwise by a national technical institute for the deaf standing alone. The host institution also offers NTID students health and counseling services, a library, and physical education and recreation facilities. General services, such as food, maintenance, grounds, and security, also are provided. RIT receives reimbursement for these services through indirect cost charges negotiated with the federal government.

In FY 2012, NTID enrolled 1,281 undergraduate deaf students, 160 interpreter students, and 106 graduate students.

NTID offers a variety of technical programs at the certificate, diploma, and associate degree levels. Majors are available in such areas as business, engineering, science, and visual communications in its degree programs. In addition, NTID students may participate in approximately 200 education programs available through RIT, which offers advanced technological courses of study at the undergraduate and graduate degree levels. In addition to the associate degree programs it directly administers, NTID is responsible for a master's degree program that trains secondary education teachers who will be teaching students who are deaf. The institute also operates a bachelor's in applied science degree program to train interpreters for persons who are deaf and a tutor and note-taker training program. Students who are deaf and enroll in NTID or RIT programs are given a wide range of support services and special programs to assist them in preparing for their careers, including tutoring, remedial and language enrichment programs, counseling, note taking, interpreting, captioning, and mentoring. Students may work with specialized educational media and complete cooperative work experiences. Specialized job placement assistance also is provided.

NTID conducts applied research on occupational- and employment-related aspects of deafness. It also conducts studies related to communication assessment, the demographics of NTID's target population, and how hearing loss affects learning in postsecondary education. In addition, NTID conducts training workshops and seminars related to deafness, which are offered to professionals throughout the nation who employ, work with, teach, or otherwise serve persons who are deaf.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The purpose of this program was to create and expand job and career opportunities for individuals with disabilities in the competitive labor market. This was accomplished by involving private industry partners to help identify competitive job and career opportunities and the skills needed to perform these jobs, to create practical job and career readiness and training programs, and to provide job placement and career advancement.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
The program supported projects that demonstrated the capacity to provide job development, job placement, career advancement, and training services for program participants, many of whom are individuals with significant disabilities. Grantees arranged, coordinated, or conducted job readiness training, occupational or job skills training, and training to enhance basic work skills and workplace competencies. Grantees also provided supportive services and assistance for individuals with disabilities in order to maintain the employment or career advancement for which the individuals received training or placement services.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The PAIR program supports the protection and advocacy system in each state to protect the legal and human rights of individuals with disabilities. In order to be eligible for advocacy services from the PAIR program, an individual with a disability must meet three criteria:

1. The individual’s concern must be beyond the scope of the Client Assistance Program (see # 84.161A, also under Rehabilitation), which is authorized under Section 112 of the Rehabilitation Act.
2. The individual must be ineligible for services from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services’ (HHS) Protection and Advocacy of Developmental Disabilities (PADD) program (authorized under Part C of the DD Act).
3. The individual also must be ineligible for the Protection and Advocacy for Individuals with Mental Illness (PAIMI) program of HHS (authorized under the Protection and Advocacy for Individuals with Mental Illness Act).

Each PAIR program must set annual priorities and objectives to meet the needs of individuals with disabilities in each state. Although the objectives and priorities vary from state to state to meet the needs of individuals with disabilities in each state, most PAIR programs set priorities and objectives aimed at reducing barriers to education, employment, transportation, and housing. In addition, PAIR programs advocate on behalf of individuals with significant disabilities to promote community integration and full participation in society.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Eligible systems have the authority to pursue legal, administrative, and other appropriate remedies or approaches to protect and advocate for the rights of individuals with disabilities. Protection and advocacy systems may be housed in public or private entities as designated by the governor.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
34 CFR 395

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The Vending Facility program authorized by the Randolph-Sheppard Act provides persons who are blind with remunerative employment and self-support through the operation of vending facilities on federal and other property. The program, enacted into law in 1936, was intended to enhance employment opportunities for trained, licensed blind persons to operate facilities. The law was subsequently amended in 1954 and again in 1974 to ultimately ensure individuals who are blind a priority in the operation of vending facilities, which included cafeterias, snack bars, and automatic vending machines, that are on federal property. The program priority has broadened in most states through state laws to include state, county, municipal, and private locations as well.

Under the Randolph Sheppard program, state licensing agencies recruit, train, license, and place individuals who are blind as operators of vending facilities located on federal and other properties. The Randolph-Sheppard Act authorizes a blind individual licensed by the state licensing agency to conduct specified activities in vending facilities through permits or contracts.

Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Rehabilitation Act), as amended, Section 305; 29 U.S.C. 775

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program provided individuals with disabilities inclusive recreational activities and related experiences that could be expected to give them skills that would aid them in their current or future employment, mobility, socialization, independence, and community integration. Project periods lasted three years and the federal share of costs was 100 percent in year 1, 75 percent in year 2, and 50 percent in year 3. Projects were required to maintain, at a minimum, the same level of services over the three-year project period and assure that the service program awarded would be continued after the federal assistance ends.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Recreation projects could include:
- Vocational skills development;
- Leisure education;
- Leisure networking;
- Leisure resource development;
- Physical education and sports;
- Scouting and camping;
- 4-H activities;
- Music;
- Dancing;
- Handicrafts;
- Art; and
- Homemaking.

When appropriate and possible, these programs and activities were to be provided in settings with peers who were not individuals with disabilities.

LEGISLATIVE CITATION
Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Rehabilitation Act), as amended, Section 12; 29 U.S.C. 709

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Section 12(a)(1)-(5) of the Rehabilitation Act authorizes the commissioner of the U.S. Department of Education’s Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA) to provide technical assistance and consultative services to public and nonprofit private agencies and organizations, including assistance to enable agencies and organizations to facilitate meaningful and effective participation by individuals with disabilities in workforce investment activities under the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA). In addition, Section 12 funds may be used to provide short-term training and technical instruction; conduct special projects and demonstrations; collect, prepare, publish, and disseminate special education or informational materials; provide monitoring; and conduct evaluations.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Program funds were awarded through grants and contracts to procure expertise in identified areas of national significance and technical support in order to improve the operation of the vocational rehabilitation (VR) program, and other programs under the Rehabilitation Act, and the provision of services to individuals with disabilities under the Rehabilitation Act.

Program improvement funds were used to support activities that improve program effectiveness and accountability, and to enhance the U.S. Department of Education’s ability to provide technical assistance in critical areas of national significance in achieving the purposes of the Rehabilitation Act.

Number of New Awards Anticipated: 80
Average New Award: $550,614
Range of New Awards: $300,000–$2,960,317

Note: Grant awards are made to 80 state vocational rehabilitation (VR) agencies because in 24 states, funds are distributed to two agencies—one serving individuals who are blind and one serving individuals with all other disabilities. The average and range of new awards above apply only to states, including Puerto Rico. The grant award for the four outlying areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) is $36,335 each.

LEGISLATIVE CITATION

Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (Rehabilitation Act), Title VI, Part B; 29 U.S.C. 795g et seq.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program provides grants to assist states in developing and implementing collaborative programs with appropriate entities to provide programs of supported employment services for individuals with the most significant disabilities to enable them to achieve an employment outcome of supported employment. Grant funds are administered under a state plan supplement to the Title I (of the Rehabilitation Act) state plan for vocational rehabilitation services designated by each state.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

Supported employment grant funds are used to supplement funds provided under the state vocational rehabilitation grants program for the costs of providing supported employment services. Program funds may be used to supplement assessments under the Title I (of the Rehabilitation Act) program and supplement other vocational rehabilitation services necessary to help individuals with the most significant disabilities find work in the integrated labor market. Funds cannot be used to provide the extended services necessary to maintain individuals in employment after the end of supported employment services, the duration of which usually do not exceed 18 months.

Note: Grant awards are made to 80 state vocational rehabilitation (VR) agencies because in 24 states, funds are distributed to two agencies—one serving individuals who are blind and one serving individuals with all other disabilities. Award information above is based on the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the outlying areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands).
PROGRAM REGULATIONS
34 CFR 361

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program provides grants to states to support a wide range of services designed to help individuals with disabilities prepare for and engage in gainful employment consistent with their strengths, resources, priorities, concerns, abilities, capabilities, interests, and informed choice. Eligible individuals are those who have a physical or mental impairment that results in a substantial impediment to employment and who require VR services to achieve an employment outcome. Priority must be given to serving individuals with the most significant disabilities if a state is unable to serve all eligible individuals.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Funds to cover the cost of direct services and program administration are distributed to states and territories based on a formula that takes into account population and per capita income. Grant funds are administered under an approved state plan by VR agencies designated by each state. The state matching requirement is 21.3 percent; however, the state share is 50 percent for the cost of construction of a facility for community rehabilitation program purposes.

A notice inviting applications for grants to be funded and awarded in FY 2013 was published in the Federal Register on March 6, 2012, 77 FR 13297. A correction notice was published in the Federal Register on April 6, 2012.

CONTRACT COMPETITIONS
• IES Web-Related Research and Dissemination—This contract will provide support for a variety of dissemination activities, including: publication and graphic design for all forms of communication, writing and editing, media planning, and Web research (e.g., conducting focus groups) aimed at improving the dissemination and use of education research. FY 2012 will be Year 1 of a three-year contract. Solicitation announcement in FedBizOps: March 2012. Contract awarded: June 2012.
• Analytic and Technical Support Contract—This contract will provide technical and methodological support activities: (1) to promote the conduct of scientifically rigorous studies and use of information from those studies; (2) for statistical analyses of education issues of national importance, expert reviews of major education studies and reports, and design papers on education research and evaluation; and (3) for technical assistance that promotes the conduct of scientifically rigorous studies, with a special emphasis on support activities related to the Regional Educational Laboratories (REL) contracts. This funding would support the first of five years (Base Year) with a start date to coincide with the new REL contracts. Solicitation announcement in FedBizOps: March 23, 2012. Award expected: July 2012.
• Independent review and Evaluation for REL—This contract will support (1) independent peer review for REL project plans, products, and publications in order to promote the conduct of scientifically rigorous studies and meaningful descriptive analyses and to develop high-quality and useful technical assistance and methodological guidance products for dissemination and (2) author products that draw from work being done across the RELs to place research findings into larger context and to build shared bodies of knowledge. This funding would provide one year of support for the new REL contract with a start date to begin six months after REL contracts have been awarded. Solicitation announcement in FedBizOps: July 2012. Award expected: September 2012.
• Analytical and Technical Support for Advancing ED Research—This contract will provide analytic and technical support to the Department’s National Center for Education Research (NCER), including the preparation of databases of scientific research publications and products of NCER-funded research; preparation of an assessment and measures compendium (including documentation of psychometric properties of instruments and description of samples and studies); identification of appropriate scientific expertise to prepare research syntheses and methodological briefs; identification of appropriate scientific expertise for methodological working groups; as well as delivery of methodological support, and ensuring that requested tasks are completed by the contract team and contracted scientific experts, in a timely and appropriate fashion. Solicitation announcement in FedBizOps: June 4, 2011. Award expected: September 2012.

- What Works Clearinghouse (WWC) Content and Website—Two contracts will be awarded to qualified entities to establish a partnership of prime contractors (one large business and one small business) to continue the development and operation of the WWC. The tasks shall be proposed via a partnership of contractors working together to submit a unified proposal that will be considered one submission. The National Center for Education Evaluation and Regional Assistance (NCEE) will award two contracts through the proposed partnership, one for the development and operation of the content of the WWC (full and open competition), and one to maintain, develop and improve the WWC website (small business set aside). Taken together, the first year of these two five-year contracts provide educators, policymakers, researchers, and the public with reviews of the scientific evidence of specific interventions—programs, products, practices, and policies—to improve important student outcomes. The Clearinghouse applies systematic review methods and the WWC evidence standards in its assessment of studies of effectiveness to determine whether or not the studies meet WWC standards. The results of WWC’s assessment of the research are reported in intervention reports, quick review reports, and practice guides that are disseminated on the WWC website. The website also provides search tools to quickly identify educational interventions that work to improve student outcomes, as well as other technical assistance documents, such as the What Works Clearinghouse Procedures and Standards Handbook. Solicitation announcement in FedBizOps: June 2012. Award expected: November 2012.

- Evidence Review and Support for the What Works Clearinghouse—This small business set-aside contract will have a 12-month base period and three 12-month option periods, and will provide support to the WWC by allowing small businesses to develop and produce such WWC reports as intervention reports, single study reviews, and practice guides primarily in the area of postsecondary education. This contract will use the WWC systematic review methods to assess evidence and apply WWC evidence standards for assessing the level of evidence of studies, and the validity of student outcome measures. The reports will be disseminated on the WWC website. Solicitation announcement in FedBizOps: May 2012. Award expected: September 2012.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The National Research Center for the Education of Gifted and Talented Youth conducts research for the purpose of carrying out activities described in Section 5464(b) of the statute (see Legislative Citation), including research on methods and techniques for identifying and teaching gifted and talented students and for using gifted and talented programs and methods to serve all students. It also conducts program evaluations and surveys. As part of its work, the center collects, analyzes, and develops information about gifted and talented education. Emphasis is given to the identification of and services for students traditionally not included in gifted and talented education, including individuals with limited English proficiency (LEP), individuals with disabilities, and individuals living in economically disadvantaged conditions.

For information about research activities conducted by the center, see the list of statutory use of funds for demonstration projects under the Javits authority (see Jacob K. Javits Gifted and Talented Students Education, # 84.206A, under topical heading Academic Improvement).

TYPES OF PROJECTS
The center conducts a variety of research studies for the purpose of carrying out activities described in Section 5464(b) of the statute.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
EDGAR, FAR

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program funds research and development projects that propose a sound approach to the investigation of an important education or assistive technology, science, or engineering question under topics identified each year in the solicitation. The purpose of the program is to:
• Stimulate technological innovation;
• Increase small business participation in federal research and development;
• Foster and encourage participation by minority and disadvantaged persons in technological innovation; and
• Increase private sector commercialization of technology derived from federal research and development.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Each year, the program funds Phase I feasibility projects for approximately six months. After completion of the Phase I stage, most of these businesses can compete for Phase II awards. Phase II awards can last up to 24 months. Through the Fast-Track option (Fast-Track proposal is a single proposal that contains both Phase I and Phase II activities) the Institute funds meritorious proposals for activities that cover both the Phase I and Phase II periods. Fast Track projects include full-scale development of an education technology product that contributes to improved student learning and academic achievement in the field of education, evaluation of the product in a school or other formal education delivery setting, and plans for the private sector commercialization of the product.

By providing funds for the Phase I period (six months, up to $150,000) and an option for Phase II (two years, up to $1,000,000), commencing as soon as Phase I ends, the Fast-Track mechanism has the potential to eliminate a funding gap between Phase I and Phase II. Firms with strong research or research and development (R/R&D) capabilities in education technology in the priority areas listed within the request for proposals are encouraged to participate.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program provides support for small businesses with strong research capabilities in science, engineering, or educational technology, to develop innovative products and technologies that are useful to persons with disabilities. The purpose of the program is to:
- Stimulate technological innovation;
- Increase small business participation in federal research and development;
- Foster and encourage participation by minority and disadvantaged persons in technological innovation; and
- Increase private sector commercialization of technology derived from federal research and development.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Each year, the SBIR Phase I program supports feasibility projects for up to six months. Phase I projects concentrate on research that will significantly contribute to proving the scientific or technical feasibility of the approach or concept. After successful completion of Phase I, these businesses can compete for Phase II awards. Phase II projects expand on the results of Phase I and further pursue project development with funding for up to 24 months.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Grants supported efforts by IHEs to develop, or review and improve, and fully integrate campus-based all-hazards emergency management planning efforts within the framework of the four phases of emergency management (prevention-mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery).

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects were those that:
- Developed, or reviewed and improved, and fully integrated a campuswide all-hazards emergency management plan that takes into account threats that may be unique to the campus;
- Trained campus staff, faculty, and students in emergency management procedures;
- Coordinated with local and state government emergency management efforts;
- Ensured coordination of planning and communication across all relevant components, offices, and departments of the campus;
- Developed a written plan with emergency protocols that included the medical, mental health, communication, mobility, and emergency needs of persons with disabilities, as well as for those individuals with temporary special needs or other unique needs (including those arising from language barriers or cultural differences);
- Developed or updated a written plan that prepared the campus for infectious disease outbreaks with both short-term implications for planning (e.g., outbreaks caused by methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus (MRSA) or food-borne illnesses) and long-term implications for planning (e.g., pandemic influenza);
- Developed or enhanced a written plan for preventing violence on campus by assisting and addressing the mental health needs of students, staff, and faculty who may be at risk of causing violence by harming themselves or others; and
- Developed or updated a written campuswide continuity of operations plan that would enable the campus to maintain, or restore, or both, key education, business, and other essential functions following an emergency.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The goals of this program were to identify and disseminate information about exemplary and effective alcohol or other drug (AOD) abuse prevention programs implemented on college campuses. Through this grant program, the U.S. Department of Education also recognized colleges and universities whose programs, while not yet exemplary or effective, showed evidence that they are promising.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
An IHE that received funding as an exemplary or effective program had to enhance, further evaluate, and disseminate information about the AOD abuse prevention program being implemented on its campus. An IHE recognized as having a promising program was required to enhance and further evaluate its program.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program funds short- and long-term education-related services for LEAs and IHEs to help them recover from a violent or traumatic event in which the learning environment has been disrupted. Immediate Services Grants generally provide up to six months of assistance in recovery efforts. Extended Services Grants are intended to address the long-term recovery efforts that may be needed following a traumatic event.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Project SERV funds costs that are reasonable, necessary, and essential for education-related activities that are intended to restore the learning environment following a violent or traumatic event. This program also supports activities that assist LEAs and IHEs in managing the practical problems created by a traumatic event that has produced an undue financial hardship for the LEA or IHE.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Grants support LEAs in the development of communitywide approaches to creating safe and drug-free schools and promoting healthy childhood development. Programs are intended to prevent violence and the illegal use of drugs and to promote safety and discipline. Coordination with the local law enforcement, local juvenile justice agency, and mental health authority is required. This program is jointly funded by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). The appropriation amounts listed above do not include funds appropriated for HHS.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
To be funded, local comprehensive strategies must address the following five elements but may address other elements as well, as determined by the needs of the community:

- Element One—Safe School Environments and Violence Prevention Activities;
- Element Two—Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drug Prevention Activities;
- Element Three—Student Behavioral, Social, and Emotional Supports;
- Element Four—Mental Health Services; and
- Element Five—Early Childhood Social and Emotional Learning Programs.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The program supports the enhancement, expansion, documentation, evaluation, and dissemination of innovative, cohesive models that demonstrate effectiveness in:
• Integrating standards-based art education into the core elementary and middle school curricula;
• Strengthening standards-based arts instruction in those grades; and
• Improving students’ academic performance, including their skills in creating, performing, and responding to the arts.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Grants are designed to enable LEAs and organizations with arts expertise to further create and develop materials for the replication or adaptation of current comprehensive approaches for integrating a range of arts disciplines—such as music, dance, theater, and visual arts, including folk arts—into the elementary and middle school curricula.

Funds may be used to:
• Further the development of programs designed to improve or expand the integration of arts education in elementary or middle school curricula;
• Develop materials designed to help replicate or adapt arts programs;
• Document and assess the results and benefits of arts programs; and
• Develop products and services that can be used to replicate arts programs in other settings.

Funds are designed to support low-income students.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
EDGAR
The Arts in Education program authorized noncompetitive awards to VSA arts, whose programs encouraged the involvement in, and foster greater awareness of the need for, arts programs for persons with disabilities. Financial support also was given to the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts for its arts education and professional development programs.

Two grants were awarded: one to VSA arts and the other to the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. VSA arts supported projects that encourage the involvement of disabled people in the arts and foster a greater awareness of the need for arts programs for the disabled. VSA arts projects include training and technical assistance activities, information services, and public awareness activities. The Kennedy Center provides performances, professional development, and other educational activities that emphasize the importance of the arts in education. The Kennedy Center also works with the Alliance for Arts Education, a network of state arts education committees, and Partners in Education, with 90 programs in 44 states and the District of Columbia, to focus on incorporating the arts into school curricula.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program provides financial assistance for the planning, program design, and initial implementation of charter schools, as well as the dissemination of information on charter schools.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
An eligible charter school developer that receives a grant may use funds only for post-award planning and design of the educational program of a charter school and for initial implementation of the school. It may carry out such activities as the articulation of desired education outcomes; refinement of methods for measuring progress toward achieving those outcomes; informing the community about the charter school; acquiring necessary equipment, materials, and supplies; and acquiring or developing curriculum materials. Other eligible operational costs that cannot be met by state and local sources also may be covered.

An eligible charter school that receives a grant for dissemination activities may use funds to assist other schools in:
- Adapting the school’s program or certain aspects of the program or to disseminate information about the school, including through such activities as assisting other individuals with the planning and start-up of other schools that are independent of the school;
• Developing partnerships with other public schools to improve student achievement;
• Developing curricula, assessments, and other materials that promote increased student achievement and are based on successful practices of the school; and
• Conducting evaluations and developing materials that document the successful practices of the school and are designed to improve student performance in other schools.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The purpose of the Charter Schools Program (CSP) is to increase national understanding of the charter school model; to expand the number of high-quality charter schools available to students across the nation by providing financial assistance for the planning, program design, and initial implementation of charter schools; and to evaluate the effects of charter schools, including their effects on students, student academic achievement, staff, and parents. Section 5205 of ESEA authorizes the secretary to award grants under the CSP to carry out national activities.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
An eligible applicant that receives a grant may use funds for authorized national activities, including:

a. Disseminating information to charter schools about federal funds that they are eligible to receive and federal programs in which they may be eligible to participate, and providing assistance to charter schools regarding federal funds that are allocated by formula;

b. Conducting evaluations or studies regarding the impact of charter schools on student academic achievement and other issues concerning charter schools, such as teacher qualifications and retention and the demographic makeup of charter school students;

c. Assisting states and charter school developers with all aspects of planning, design, and implementing a charter school;

d. Disseminating information on best or promising practices in charter schools to other public schools;

e. Collecting and disseminating information about programs and financial resources available to charter schools for facilities;

f. Providing technical assistance to authorized public chartering agencies in order to increase the number of high-performing charter schools; and
g. Assisting LEAs in the planning and start-up of charter schools as a means of implementing school turnaround or restart intervention models in persistently low-performing schools.

Note: While this program has not received a specific appropriation since FY 2007, in recent years appropriations language has permitted the secretary to use a portion of the Charter Schools appropriation to make grants under this program and the Charter School Facilities Incentive Grants program (# 84.282D, also under topical heading School Improvement). The amounts above represent the topical heading amount of the appropriation for the Charter Schools Program that the Department used in FYs 2010 and 2011 and expects to use in FY 2012 for Credit Enhancement for Charter School Facilities Program grants. The total appropriation for the Charter Schools Program was $256,031,000, $255,518,938, and $255,036,069 in fiscal years 2010, 2011, and 2012, respectively.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Scholarships for Opportunity and Results (SOAR) Act reauthorized the DC Opportunity Scholarship Program. The SOAR Act contains new provisions that include: increasing the maximum scholarship; increasing the amount of the grant that may be retained by the grantee for administration and parent and student support; giving a priority for the receipt of scholarships to current recipients and their siblings; adding new requirements for participating private schools; and requiring an evaluation to examine changes in parents’ school involvement and satisfaction. Funds appropriated to the District of Columbia are awarded and administered by the U.S. Department of Education.

The D.C. School Choice Incentive Program provides low-income parents residing in the District with expanded options for the education of their children. This program is part of a broader school improvement effort in the District. The Department awards one grant on a competitive basis to administer the scholarship program for new as well as current student participants. These scholarships, of up to $8,000 per student per school year for grades K–8 and up to $12,000 per student per school year for grades 9–12, enable students to attend a participating nonpublic District elementary or secondary school of their choice.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program promotes economic and financial literacy among students in grades K–12 through the award of one grant to a national nonprofit education organization that has as its primary purpose the improvement of student understanding of personal finance and economics.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
The grantee must use 25 percent of grant funds to conduct direct activities and 75 percent of funds to make subgrants to eligible entities. Direct grantee activities must:

- Strengthen and expand the grantee’s relationships with state and local personal finance, entrepreneurial, and economic education organizations;
- Support and promote training of teachers who teach a grade from kindergarten through grade 12 regarding economics, including the dissemination of information on effective practices and research findings regarding the teaching of economics;
- Support research on effective teaching practices and the development of assessment instruments to document student understanding of personal finance and economics; and
- Develop and disseminate appropriate materials to foster economic literacy.

Subgrantees must use funds for one or more of the following purposes:

- Collaboratively establishing and conducting teacher training programs that use effective and innovative approaches to the teaching of economics, personal finance, and entrepreneurship;
- Providing resources to school districts that desire to incorporate economics and personal finance into the curricula of the schools in the districts;
- Conducting evaluations of the impact of economic and financial literacy education on students;
- Conducting economic and financial literacy education research;
- Creating and conducting school-based student activities to promote consumer, economic, and personal finance education (such as saving, investing, and entrepreneurial education) and to encourage awareness and student academic achievement in economics; or
- Encouraging replication of best practices to promote economic and financial literacy.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

FIE provides authority for the secretary of education to support nationally significant programs to improve the quality of elementary and secondary education at the state and local levels and to help all students meet challenging state academic content standards and student achievement standards. The types of projects that may be supported include: activities to promote systemic education reform at the state and local levels; programs at the state and local levels that are designed to yield significant results, including programs to explore approaches to public school choice and school-based decision making; recognition programs; and scientifically based studies and evaluations of education reform strategies and innovations. All funded programs must be designed so that their effectiveness is readily ascertainable and is assessed using rigorous, scientifically based research and evaluations.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

In 2012, FIE supports the following activities:

- Full-Service Community Schools grants, which support activities to coordinate academic, social, and health services through partnerships among public elementary and secondary schools; the schools’ LEAs; and community-based organizations (CBOs), nonprofit organizations, and other public or private entities (see # 84.215J, under topical heading Teacher and Principal Quality).
- An education facilities clearinghouse, which provides technical assistance and training related to education facility planning, design, financing, construction, improvement, operation, and maintenance of public education facilities (see # 84.215T, under topical heading Technical Assistance).
- A data quality initiative, which provides assistance to improve the quality, analysis, and reporting of Department of Education elementary and secondary program data.
- The Innovative Approaches to Literacy initiative, which supports grants to LEAs and national not-for-profit organizations to provide books and literacy activities to children and families in high-need communities.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
These grants assist in the desegregation of public schools by supporting the elimination, reduction, and prevention of minority-group isolation in elementary and secondary schools with substantial numbers of minority-group students. In order to meet the statutory purposes of the program, projects also must support the development and implementation of magnet schools that assist in the achievement of systemic reforms and provide all students with the opportunity to meet challenging academic content and achievement standards. Projects support the development and design of innovative education methods and practices that promote diversity and increase choices in public education programs. The program supports capacity building through professional development and other activities that will enable the continued operation of the magnet schools at a high performance level after funding ends. Additionally, the program supports the implementation of courses of instruction in magnet schools that strengthen students’ knowledge of core academic subjects and their grasp of marketable vocational skills. Finally, projects are designed to ensure that all students enrolled in the programs have equitable access to high-quality education that will enable them to succeed academically and continue with postsecondary education or productive employment.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Magnet schools offer a wide range of distinctive education programs. A variety of program themes are offered, such as STEM (science, technology, engineering, and mathematics), environmental sustainability, technology, language immersion, and the arts. Other schools focus on using specific instructional approaches, such as Montessori methods, or approaches found in international baccalaureate programs or early college programs.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
Parental Information and Resource Centers (PIRCs) helped implement parental involvement policies and activities that are intended to lead to improvements in student academic achievement and strengthen partnerships among parents, teachers, principals, administrators, and other school personnel in meeting the education needs of children. PIRC grantees were required to serve both rural and urban areas; use at least half of their funds to serve areas with high concentrations of low-income families; and use at least 30 percent of the funds they receive for early childhood parent education programs.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects were required to include activities that establish, expand, or operate early childhood parent education programs and engage in a variety of technical assistance activities designed to improve student academic achievement, including improving parent understanding of the accountability systems in the state and school districts being served by a project. Specific activities often included helping parents to understand the data that accountability systems make available to parents and the significance of those data in such areas as opportunities for supplemental services and public school choice afforded to their children under Section 1116 of ESEA. Projects helped parents to communicate effectively with teachers, principals, counselors, administrators, and other school personnel, and helped parents become active participants in the development, implementation, and review of school improvement plans.

Additionally, projects generally developed resource materials and provided information about high-quality family involvement programs to families, schools, school districts, and others through conferences, workshops, and dissemination of materials. Projects generally included a focus on serving low-income families and parents of minority children and English learners enrolled in elementary and secondary schools, in addition to focusing on early childhood education.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the Promise Neighborhoods program is to significantly improve the educational and developmental outcomes of children in the nation’s most distressed communities and to transform those communities by:

- Identifying and increasing the capacity of Promise Neighborhoods organizations that are focused on achieving results for children and youths throughout an entire neighborhood;
- Building a complete continuum of cradle-through-college-to-career solutions of both educational programs and family and community supports, with great schools at the center;
- Integrating programs and breaking down agency “silos” so that solutions are implemented effectively and efficiently across agencies;
- Developing the local infrastructure of systems and resources needed to sustain and scale up proven, effective solutions across the broader region beyond the initial neighborhood; and
- Learning about the overall impact of the Promise Neighborhoods program and about the relationship between particular strategies in Promise Neighborhoods and student outcomes, including by means of a rigorous evaluation of the program.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

The secretary expects that Promise Neighborhoods implementation grantees will undertake the following activities:

- Implement a continuum of solutions that addresses neighborhood challenges, as identified in a needs assessment and segmentation analysis, and that will improve results for children and youths in the neighborhood;
- Continue to build and strengthen partnerships that will provide solutions along the continuum of solutions and that will commit resources to sustain and scale up what works;
- Collect data on indicators at least annually, and use and improve a data system for learning, continuous improvement, and accountability;
- Demonstrate progress on goals for improving systems, such as by making changes in policies and organizations, and by leveraging resources to sustain and scale up what works; and
- Participate in a community of practice.

Planning grantees receive funds for a year to conduct activities that result in a plan for a Promise Neighborhood.

WHO MAY APPLY (SPECIFICALLY)

The SEAs of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico, the Department of the Interior’s Bureau of Indian Education (BIE), and the outlying areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) are entitled to receive FY 2011 School Improvement Grants in proportion to the FY 2011 funds they receive under Parts A, C, and D of Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, as amended. An SEA must allocate at least 95 percent to local education agencies (LEAs) with the lowest-achieving schools that have the greatest need for the funds and demonstrate the strongest commitment to use the funds to raise substantially the achievement of their students.

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (BY CATEGORY)

Formula Grants

TYPE OF ASSISTANCE (SPECIFICALLY)

To receive a School Improvement Grant, an SEA must submit an application to the U.S. Department of Education. Under the final requirements issued by the Department for this program, these funds are intended to be used primarily for competitive awards to LEAs to implement one of four specified school intervention models—Turnaround, Restart, School Closure, or Transformation—in each state’s persistently lowest-achieving schools.

FISCAL YEAR 2012 AWARDS INFORMATION

Note: The Department is not bound by any estimates in this notice.

Number of New Awards Anticipated: 57
Average New Award: $9,360,556
Range of New Awards: $1,196,180–$62,895,130

Note: Award information does not include the awards for the BIE or the outlying areas.

LEGISLATIVE CITATION

Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA), as amended, Title I; 20 U.S.C. 6303(g)

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Title I, Section 1003(g), of ESEA authorizes formula grants to SEAs. Each SEA must award at least 95 percent of the funds it receives to LEAs on a competitive basis. To be eligible to receive a School Improvement Grant, an LEA must receive Title I, Part A, funds and must have one or more schools identified by the SEA in its School Improvement Grant application as eligible to receive school improvement funds.

An SEA must identify three tiers of schools:

- In general, a Tier I-eligible school is a Title I school in improvement, correct action, or restructuring that is: (1) among the lowest-achieving 5 percent of such schools in the state (or the lowest-achieving five such schools, whichever is greater) or (2) a high school with a graduation rate below 60 percent over a number of years.

- In general, a Tier II-eligible school is a secondary school that is eligible for, but does not receive, Title I funds that is: (1) among the lowest-achieving 5 percent of such schools in the state (or lowest-achieving five such schools, whichever is greater) or (2) a high school with a graduation rate below 60 percent over a number of years.

- In general, a Tier III-eligible school is a Title I school in improvement, corrective action, or restructuring that is not included in Tier I.

At its discretion, an SEA also may make eligible a school that is eligible to receive Title I funds and is no higher achieving than the highest-achieving Tier I or Tier II school and that (1) has not made adequate yearly progress (AYP) for two consecutive years or (2) is in the lowest quintile of schools in the state in terms of achievement.

In awarding school improvement funds to LEAs, an SEA must give priority to LEAs that apply to serve Tier I or Tier II schools before awarding funds to LEAs to serve Tier III schools. An LEA must use school improvement funds in any Tier I or Tier II school that it applies to serve to implement one of four school improvement models: Turnaround model, Restart model, School Closure, or Transformation model.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

SEAs use School Improvement Grants primarily to make three-year awards to LEAs that commit to implement fully and effectively a locally selected school intervention model (Turnaround, Restart, School Closure, or Transformation), requirements for which vary from model to model, but which typically requires such measures as replacement of school leadership and other staff, high-quality professional development, implementation of a research-based instructional program, and extended learning time. LEAs receiving School Improvement Grants must set annual school-level goals for improving student achievement and must measure progress on certain performance indicators, and SEAs must review grantee performance against these goals and indicators before making second- and third-year awards.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program provides grants to eligible states to help them establish, or enhance, and administer per-pupil facilities aid programs for charter schools. States eligible for these grants are those with per-pupil aid programs to assist charter schools with their school facility costs. Federal funds are used to supplement programs funded with nonfederal dollars that make payments, on a per-pupil basis, to provide charter schools with facilities financing. States must pay an increasing share of the cost of the program over the course of a grant.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program supports efforts to establish or expand intradistrict, interdistrict, and open-enrollment public school choice programs to provide parents, particularly parents whose children attend low-performing public schools, with expanded education options. Projects assisted are required to use a portion of the grant funds to provide the students selected to participate in the program with transportation services or the cost of transportation to and from the public elementary schools and secondary schools, including charter schools that the students choose to attend under the program. A grantee may not use funds for school construction. No more than 5 percent of the funds made available through the grant for any fiscal year may be used for administrative expenses.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Programs and projects may include the following activities:
- Planning or designing a program (for not more than one year);
- Making tuition transfer payments to public elementary or secondary schools to which students transfer under the program;
- Implementing capacity-enhancing activities that enable high-demand public elementary or secondary schools to accommodate transfer requests under the program; and
- Paying for other costs reasonably necessary to implement the public school choice program.

LEGISLATIVE CITATION
Act to Promote the Education of the Blind; 20 U.S.C. 101–106a

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
APH produces and distributes educational materials adapted for students who are blind or legally blind and enrolled in formal education programs below the college level. These materials are distributed to public and private nonprofit institutions serving individuals who are blind through allotments to the states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the territories and possessions of the United States. The allotments are based on an annual census conducted by APH of the number of students who are blind or legally blind in each state and are provided in the form of credits. State education agencies (SEAs) and public and private nonprofit institutions serving persons who are blind may order materials free of charge up to the amount of funds allocated to each state for educational materials. APH also uses its appropriation to conduct research related to developing and improving products and provides advisory services to professional and consumer organizations on the availability and use of materials produced by APH. In FY 2011, APH served 59,825 students.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Materials produced by APH include: textbooks in Braille and large print education tools, such as Braille typewriters and computer software and hardware; teaching aides, such as tests and performance measures; and other special supplies. APH conducts applied research necessary to develop and improve instructional materials in such areas as Braille reading, science, mathematics, and social studies, and to adapt testing materials related to these subject areas. Special materials also are developed in such areas as early childhood education, prevocational training, the use of computer applications, the functional use of residual vision, and to teach students with additional disabilities. Additionally, advisory services activities include operation of APH’s Student Registration System, Louis Database of Accessible Materials, Electronic File Repository, Expert Database, and National Instructional Partnership, and use of a variety of mechanisms to provide information on APH services, such as catalogs, brochures, and videos.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
34 CFR 303
PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program provides grants under a statutory formula to the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the secretary of the interior, and four outlying areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands) to assist in maintaining and implementing statewide systems of coordinated, comprehensive, multidisciplinary, interagency programs of early intervention services for infants and toddlers with disabilities and their families. Allocations are based on the number of children from birth through age 2 in the general population in the state relative to the population in this age range for all states. In addition, no state may receive less than 0.5 percent of the funds available to all states or $500,000, whichever is greater. The outlying areas may receive an aggregated amount of up to 1 percent of the funds appropriated, and the secretary of the interior receives 1.25 percent of the aggregate of the amount available to states, which must be distributed to federally recognized Indian tribes, tribal organizations or consortia of these entities.

States are responsible for making early intervention services available to all eligible children and their families, including Indian infants and toddlers residing within the state on reservations. States also may elect to provide services to infants and toddlers who are at risk of having substantial developmental delays if appropriate early intervention services are not provided. In FY 2011, this program served approximately 352,000 infants and toddlers with disabilities.

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), as amended, also allows states, at their discretion, to make available early intervention services under Part C to children with disabilities beyond age 3 until the children enter or are eligible under state law to enter preschool or kindergarten or elementary school, if such children are eligible for services under the Preschool Grants for Children of Disabilities Program (see # 84.173, also under topical heading Special Education) and previously received services under the Part C program. American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 funds were set aside in FY 2009 for states that elected to pursue this option.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

Lead agencies are responsible for ensuring the provision of appropriate early intervention services and development of methods to ensure the financial responsibility for the provision of services including formal interagency agreements to ensure the timely delivery of services. Funds also may be used to provide direct services that otherwise are not available from other public or private funding sources. After conducting an evaluation and assessment of the child and a voluntary family assessment, the Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP) team identifies services to address the physical, cognitive, communication, social-emotional, and adaptive developmental needs of infants and toddlers with disabilities (e.g., special instruction, speech therapy, occupational therapy, physical therapy, and psychological services) and to support families (e.g., family training and counseling). In addition, each eligible child and family must be provided service coordination, a key component of family-centered services. Depending on whether a state has adopted a system-of-payments policy, which must be on file with, and approved by, the secretary of education, families who do not meet the state’s definition of inability to pay may be required to pay for some services.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The U.S. Department of Education provides support for Gallaudet University in order to help promote postsecondary education and employment opportunities for persons who are deaf. The university provides a wide range of undergraduate, graduate, and continuing education programs in fields related to deafness for students who are deaf and a limited number of students who are hearing.

Gallaudet also operates elementary and secondary education programs at the Laurent Clerc National Deaf Education Center. This center includes the Kendall Demonstration Elementary School, which is an elementary school for students who are deaf; the Model Secondary School for the Deaf, which is a secondary school for students who are deaf; and a National Mission Program, which provides training, technical assistance, and materials related to education of the deaf. The federal government funds these programs in order to support the development, evaluation, and dissemination of model curricula, instructional techniques and strategies, and materials that can be used in a variety of educational environments serving individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing throughout the nation.

In FY 2012, the university enrolled 1,016 degree-seeking undergraduate students, 370 nondegree and part-time students, and 434 graduate students, as well as 262 elementary and secondary education students.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Gallaudet University offers a traditional liberal arts curriculum and graduate programs in fields related to deafness for students who are deaf as well as for a limited number of hearing students. To increase the effectiveness of its instructional programs, the university provides communications training, counseling, and other support services for its students who are deaf. Gallaudet also conducts a wide variety of basic and applied deafness research and provides public service programs for persons who are deaf and professionals who work with persons who are deaf.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
34 CFR 300, Subpart H
PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program provides grants to states, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico to make special education and related services available to children with disabilities, ages 3 through 5, and, at the state’s discretion, to 2-year-olds with disabilities who will turn 3 during the school year. At their discretion, states may include preschool-age children who are experiencing developmental delays, as defined by the state and measured by appropriate diagnostic instruments and procedures, and who need special education and related services. Funds are distributed to eligible SEAs based on the amount each state received in FY 1997 and on the relative number of children ages 3 through 5 in the state’s general population and the number of these children living in poverty. The formula contains provisions for situations in which the appropriation for the program remains constant, increases, or decreases, and several maximum and minimum funding requirements.

States must distribute the bulk of their grant awards to local education agencies (LEAs). They may retain funds for state-level activities up to an amount equal to 25 percent of the amount they received for FY 1997 under this program, adjusted upward each year by the lesser of either the rate of increase in the state’s allocation or the rate of inflation. The amount that may be used for administration is limited to not more than 20 percent of the amount available to a state for state-level activities. Funds reserved for administration also may be used for the administration of Part C of IDEA.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

Funds under this program are used by SEAs and LEAs to make special education and related services available to 3- through 5-year-old children with disabilities and, at a state’s discretion, to 2-year-old children with disabilities who will reach age 3 during the school year. Permissible expenditures include the salaries of special education teachers and costs associated with related services, including, but not limited to, speech-language pathology services, physical and occupational therapy, psychological services, parent counseling and training, and social work services in schools.

States may use state set-aside funds not reserved for administration for:

- Direct services for children eligible for services under this program;
- Support services;
- The provision of early intervention services (which shall include an educational component that promotes school readiness and incorporates preliteracy, language, and numeracy skills), in accordance with Part C, to children with disabilities who are eligible for services under Section 619 and who previously received services under Part C until such children enter, or are eligible under state law to enter, kindergarten; and
- Other specified activities.

In FY 2011, this program served approximately 709,000 children.

LEGISLATIVE CITATION

Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), as amended, Part B, Section 611; 20 U.S.C. 1411

PROGRAM REGULATIONS

34 CFR 300

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Grants to States program provides formula grants to assist the 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Department of the Interior, outlying areas (American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands), and the freely associated states (the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau) in meeting the excess costs of providing special education and related services to children with disabilities. In order to be eligible for funding, states must serve all children with disabilities between the ages of 3 through 21, except that they are not required to serve children of ages 3 through 5 or 18 through 21 years if services are inconsistent with state law or practice or the order of any court.

Funds are allocated among states in accordance with the statutory formula in Section 611 of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). First, each state is allocated an amount equal to the amount that it received for FY 1999. If the amount available for allocation to states increases or is equal to the amount allocated the prior year, 85 percent of the remaining funds are allocated based on the number of children in the general population in the age range for which the state guarantees a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to children with disabilities. Fifteen percent of the remaining funds are allocated based on the number of children living in poverty that are in the age range for which the state guarantees FAPE to children with disabilities. If the amount available for allocation to states decreases from the prior year, any amount available for allocation to states above the 1999 level is allocated based on the relative increases in funding that the states received between 1999 and the prior year. If there is a decrease below the amount allocated for 1999, each state’s allocation is ratably reduced from the 1999 level. The formula also includes several maximum and minimum funding requirements. Most of the federal funds provided to states must be passed on to LEAs; however, a portion of the funds may be used for state-level activities. Any funds not set aside by the state must be passed through to LEAs. States allocate funds to LEAs in accordance with a statutory formula that is similar to that used to allocate funds among states when the amount available for allocation to states increases.

This is a forward-funded program that includes advance appropriations. In a typical year, a portion of the funds—the forward-funded portion—becomes available for obligation on July 1 of the fiscal year of the appropriation and remains available for 15 months, through Sept. 30 of the following year. The remaining funds—the advance appropriation—become available for obligation on Oct. 1 of the fiscal year following the year of the appropriations act and remain available for 12 months, expiring at the same time as the forward-funded portion. For FY 2012, school districts will use both the forward- and advance-funded amounts primarily during the 2012–13 school year.
TYPES OF PROJECTS

Funds under this program are combined with state and local funds to provide FAPE to children with disabilities. Permitted expenditures include the salaries of special education teachers and costs associated with related services personnel, such as speech therapists and psychologists. States may use funds reserved for other state-level activities for a variety of specified activities, including: support and direct services; technical assistance and personnel preparation; assisting LEAs in providing positive behavioral interventions and supports; and improving the use of technology in the classroom. Some portion of funds reserved for other state-level activities must be used for monitoring, enforcement, and complaint investigation, and to establish and implement the mediation process required by Section 615(e) of IDEA, including providing for the cost of mediators and support personnel.

Each state has the option to reserve a portion of the funds the state reserves for other state-level activities for a fund to assist LEAs in addressing the needs of high-cost children with disabilities. If the state opts to reserve for this fund, it may reserve a larger portion of its award for other state-level activities, and must reserve at least 10 percent of the amount set aside for other state-level activities for the fund.

In FY 2011, this program served approximately 6,599,000 children.

Nonprofit Organizations

WHO MAY APPLY (SPECIFICALLY)

For Parent Training and Information (PTI) Centers (# 84.328M), parent organizations may apply. A parent organization is a private nonprofit organization (other than an institution of higher education [IHE]) that:

1. Has a board of directors
   a. The majority of whom are parents of children with disabilities who are between the ages of birth through 26, and
   b. That includes
      i. individuals working in the fields of special education, related services, and early intervention,
      ii. individuals with disabilities,
      iii. the parent and professional members of which are broadly representative of the population to be served, including low-income parents of limited English proficient (LEP) children; and
2. Has as its mission serving families of children with disabilities who are between the ages of birth through 26 and have the full range of disabilities described in Section 602(3) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).
For Community Parent Resource Centers (CPRCs; # 84.328C), local parent organizations may apply. A local parent organization is a parent organization (see above) that:

1. Has a board of directors, the majority of whom are parents of children with disabilities who are between the ages of birth through 26 from the community to be served; and
2. Has as its mission serving parents of children with disabilities from that community who
   a. Are between the ages of birth through 26, and
   b. Have the full ranges of disabilities (as defined in Section 602(3) of IDEA).

The term “community to be served” (which appears in no. 1 directly above) refers to a community whose members experience significant isolation from available sources of information and support as a result of cultural, economic, linguistic, or other circumstances deemed appropriate by the secretary of education.

For Technical Assistance for Parent Training and Information Centers (# 84.328R), private nonprofit organizations may apply.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The National Center for Education Statistics, of the U.S. Department of Education’s IES, collects statistics on the condition of education in the United States; analyzes and reports the meaning and significance of these statistics; and assists states, LEAs, and postsecondary institutions in improving their statistical systems. NCES supports a wide range of activities, providing policy-relevant data on issues as diverse as enrollment trends, access of minorities to postsecondary education, academic achievement of students, comparisons of the U.S. education system with education systems in other countries, and the association between education and employment and economic productivity. Most activities are conducted through contracts.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Fund for the Improvement of Education (FIE), which is authorized by Section 5411 of ESEA, supports nationally significant programs to improve the quality of elementary and secondary education at the state and local levels and help all children meet challenging academic content and achievement standards. The Full-Service Community Schools program, which is being carried out under FIE, encourages coordination of education, developmental, family, health, and other services through partnerships between:

- Public elementary and secondary schools;
- The schools’ LEAs; and
- CBOs, nonprofit organizations, and other public or private entities.

Such collaboration is intended to provide comprehensive education, social, and health services for students, families, and communities.

---

TYPES OF PROJECTS

Full-service community schools provide comprehensive academic, social, and health programs and services to meet individual, family, and community needs. These services may include:

- High-quality early learning programs and services;
- Remedial education, aligned with academic supports and other enrichment activities, providing students with a comprehensive academic program;
- Family engagement, including parental involvement, parent leadership, family literacy, and parent education programs;
- Mentoring and other youth development programs;
- Community service and service-learning opportunities;
- Programs that provide assistance to students who have been chronically absent, truant, suspended, or expelled;
- Job training and career counseling services;
- Nutrition services and physical activities;
- Primary health and dental care;
- Activities that improve access to and use of social service programs and programs that promote family financial stability;
- Mental health services; and
- Adult education, including instruction of adults in English as a second language.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the program is to increase academic achievement by improving teacher and principal quality. This program is carried out through efforts to: increase the number of highly qualified teachers in classrooms, increase the number of highly qualified principals and assistant principals in schools, reduce class size, and increase the effectiveness of teachers and principals by holding LEAs and schools accountable for improvements in student academic achievement.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

State-level activities include but are not limited to efforts designed to:

1. Recruit and retain highly qualified teachers, assistant principals, and principals;
2. Increase the number of highly qualified teachers in classrooms; and
3. Reform teacher and principal certification programs.

These activities must be based on a needs assessment, and, among other things, be aligned with state academic content standards, student academic achievement standards, and state assessments (for formula grants). The SAHE works in conjunction with the SEA to make competitive subgrants to partnerships of IHEs, high-need LEAs, and other entities for specific activities that focus on professional development for teachers, highly qualified paraprofessionals, and, if appropriate, principals. In addition, SEAs distribute the bulk of program funds they receive by formula to LEAs in the state for a wide variety of teacher-quality activities that LEAs design consistent with their assessment of need.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program supports efforts to develop and implement performance-based compensation systems for teachers, principals, and other personnel in high-need schools. Goals include:
- Improving student achievement by increasing teacher and principal effectiveness;
- Reforming compensation systems so that teachers, principals, and other personnel in high-need schools are rewarded for increases in student achievement;
- Increasing the number of effective teachers teaching poor, minority, and disadvantaged students in hard-to-staff subjects; and
- Creating effective and sustainable performance-based compensation systems.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Projects develop and implement performance-based compensation systems for teachers, principals, and other personnel in high-need schools. Performance-based compensation systems must consider gains in student academic achievement as well as classroom evaluations conducted multiple times during each school year, among other factors, and provide educators with incentives to take on additional responsibilities and leadership roles.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Teacher Quality Partnership Grants program seeks to improve student achievement and the quality of teachers working in high-need schools and ECE programs by improving the preparation of teachers and enhancing professional development activities for teachers; holding teacher preparation programs accountable for preparing effective teachers; and recruiting highly qualified individuals, including minorities and individuals from other occupations, into the teaching force. Projects also may include a component for training school leaders in high-need or rural LEAs and a component for partnering with a public broadcast television station or another entity that develops digital education content, to improve the quality of teacher preparation programs. The program is intended to help create effective pathways into teaching and support the nation’s teaching force in effectively improving student outcomes.

TYPES OF PROJECTS

This program provides five years of support to improve the quality of new teachers working in high-need LEAs and high-need schools by creating high-quality model teacher preparation programs to enable teachers to meet the specific learning needs of all students, including those with disabilities, limited English proficiency (LEP), and low literacy levels. Grant funds must be used to strengthen pre-baccalaureate or fifth-year education programs, or to develop one-year teacher residency programs that enable participants to earn master’s degrees and teacher certification, or to do both. Projects also may include leadership components to train superintendents, principals, ECE program directors and other school leaders, and an initiative to support development of digital education content.

FISCAL YEAR 2012 AWARDS INFORMATION
Note: The Department is not bound by any estimates in this notice.

Number of New Awards Anticipated: 0

Number of Continuation Awards: 50
Average Continuation Award: $521,000
Range of Continuation Awards: $225,000–$2,140,000

LEGISLATIVE CITATION
The program provides grants to:

• Recruit and retain highly qualified mid-career professionals (including highly qualified paraprofessionals) and recent graduates of IHEs as teachers in high-need schools, including recruiting teachers through alternative routes to teacher certification; and

• Encourage the development and expansion of alternative routes to certification under state-approved programs that enable individuals to be eligible for teacher certification within a reduced period of time, relying on the experience, expertise, and academic qualifications of individuals or other factors in lieu of traditional course work in the field of education.

The program funds national, regional, statewide, and local projects.

An applicant aspiring to be an elementary or secondary school teacher must have a baccalaureate or advanced degree from an accredited institution of higher education. Applicants seeking to become career and technical education teachers must have the equivalent of one year of college-level work and six years of military experience in a technical or vocational field or meet state requirements for teacher certification. Applicants also must:

• Have an approved date of retirement within one year after the date on which the applicant applies to this program;
• Have been transferred to the retired reserve;
• Have been separated or released from active duty after six or more years of continuous active duty immediately before separation, or have completed at least 10 years of active duty;
• Have been retired or separated due to physical disability;
• Have been involuntarily discharged or released from active duty due to a reduction in force between Oct. 1, 1990, and Sept. 30, 1999; or
• Have applied and qualified under the previous Troops-to-Teachers program statute (10 U.S.C. 1151).

Participants must also execute a reserve commitment for at least three years.

PROGRAM REGULATIONS
EDGAR
PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
This program supports comprehensive technical assistance centers, intended to help states increase their capacity to assist districts and schools in meeting their student achievement goals. By statute, the Department is required to establish at least one center in each of the 10 geographic regions served by the Department’s Regional Educational Laboratories (see Regional Educational Laboratories, # 84.117, under topical heading Research).

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Grantees are required to develop plans for carrying out authorized activities that address state and regional needs. The Regional Centers provide services primarily to state education agencies (SEAs) to enable them to assist school districts, regional education agencies, and schools, especially low-performing schools. At a minimum, each Regional Center provides training and technical assistance in the implementation and administration of programs authorized under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). In addition, the centers disseminate information and provide technical assistance to SEAs that build their capacity to support local education agencies (LEAs) and schools, especially low-performing districts and schools, improve educational outcomes for all students, close achievement gaps, and improve the quality of instruction.

The Content Centers each focus on specific content areas that reflect major state reform initiatives. These centers supply much of the research-based information and products in the specific area that Regional Centers use when working with states.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
The U.S. Department of Education funds Equity Assistance Centers to provide technical assistance and training, upon request, in the areas of race, sex, and national origin to public school districts and other responsible government agencies to promote equitable education opportunities. The centers work in the areas of civil rights, equity, and school reform. This assistance helps schools and communities ensure that equitable education opportunities are available and accessible for all children.

TYPES OF PROJECTS
Typical activities include: Technical assistance in the identification and selection of appropriate education programs to meet the needs of English Learner students; training designed to develop educators’ skills in specific areas, such as the dissemination of information on successful education and the legal requirements related to nondiscrimination on the basis of race, sex, and national origin in education programs; and technical assistance and training for education issues occasioned by school desegregation.

The centers also develop materials, strategies, and professional development activities to assist schools and communities in preventing and countering harassment including bullying, based on race, ethnicity, or gender, and ensuring that all students have equal access to a high-quality, college preparatory curriculum.

Program Description

The primary goal of this program was to improve student achievement through the use of technology in elementary and secondary schools. Additional goals included helping all students to become technologically literate by the end of grade 8 and, through the integration of technology, with both teacher training and curriculum development, establishing research-based instructional methods that can be widely implemented.

Types of Projects

Local activities included the support of continuing, sustained professional development programs and public-private partnerships. Activities also included: the use of new or existing technologies to improve academic achievement; the acquisition of curricula that integrate technology and are designed to meet challenging state academic standards; the use of technology to increase parent involvement in schools; and the use of technology to collect, manage, and analyze data to enhance teaching and school improvement.

Subject Index

Guide users may find this index useful for locating programs with a similar focus. The terms highlighted here are from a controlled vocabulary developed by the Department’s Education Resources Information Center (ERIC) for providing access to more than 1.1 million journal articles, research reports, curriculum and teaching guides, conference papers, and books. Known as the “ERIC descriptors,” these terms are from the Thesaurus of ERIC Descriptors (see the ERIC website at http://eric.ed.gov for more information).
