The U.S. Department of Education, Office of English Language Acquisition (OELA), is interested in individuals to serve as peer reviewers for the National Professional Development (NPD) grant competition. NOTE: Even if you were registered to be a peer reviewer in prior years, we ask that you check your registration to ensure we have current information. (Instructions on reverse side)

WHO: The Department is interested in peer reviewers with professional expertise in English Learner (EL) programs or services including current and former PK-12 teachers and principals, LEA and SEA leaders, college and university educators, educational evaluators, and others with EL education and language acquisition expertise.

Professional Learning:

*Experience designing comprehensive professional learning opportunities for educators
*Experience delivering professional learning opportunities for educators
*Experience with preservice and/or in-service training and development

In addition, reviewers must have expertise in at least one of the program's priority areas or in educational evaluation (further discussion below).

NPD Program Priorities

You must have specific expertise in at least one of the NPD priority areas listed below. For a detailed explanation of these priority areas, see the descriptions included in the NPD Notice Inviting Applications published on December 11, 2016.

- Family and Community Engagement
- Early Learning
- Dual Language Learning

OR

Educational Program Evaluation

The Department is also seeking peer reviewers with experience in designing, conducting, and reviewing rigorous educational evaluations, including:

- Understanding of education research and recent findings in the relevant literature
- Knowledge of education data sources and measures of program implementation and outcomes
- Expertise with experimental and quasi-experimental research designs
- Fluency in reviewing organizational and project evaluation plans and evaluation results
REGISTERING TO BE A PEER REVIEWER

IF INTERESTED: If you would like to be considered as a peer reviewer, please submit your resume at www.g5.gov by February 1, 2016. If you need any technical assistance, help is available through e-mail at edcaps.user@ed.gov, by calling the G5 Hotline, or by entering a ticket at EDCAPS.FORCE.COM.

Hours Of Operation: 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday - Friday, EST, except on Federal holidays. Toll-Free:1-888-336-8930;TTY:800-877-8339; Local: 202-401-6238.

You must register in the G5.gov system to be considered as a potential peer reviewer.

The online registration requires you to submit your resume. Please ensure your resume includes a brief list of career highlights and outlines your specific expertise either in evaluation or in the NPD priority areas for which you would like to be considered as a reviewer.

When the system prompts you for your areas of specialization, please ensure you indicate all specialization areas in which you have expertise that relates to the NPD priority areas, such as: “English language learners”, “teacher preparation”, “school leadership”, “professional development”, “family and community engagement”, “early learning,” or “dual language learning”.

If you desire, you may indicate additional areas of expertise outside of the NPD Priorities (e.g., “organizational development”, “standards”, etc.) to indicate complementary areas of expertise, but you are not required to do so.

OTHER DESIRED ATTRIBUTES AND SKILLS:

Organizational Development, such as experience building, managing and/or overseeing relationships across multiple organizations to deliver a service/product.

Other Requirements: In addition to the skills, attributes and expertise highlighted above and on page 1, peer reviewers must also meet the following requirements:

*Availability: Peer reviewers must generally be available for a 2 week time period and will work remotely including via teleconference.

*Tools: Each reviewer must have access to the Internet, a phone, a printer and have the ability to interact within a web-based environment.

*Quality of Review: Each reviewer must commit to providing detailed, objective, constructive, and timely written reviews for each assigned application. These reviews will be used to recommend applications for funding. They will also be shared with each applicant following the reviews.

OTHER DESIRED ATTRIBUTES AND SKILLS:

Organizational Development, such as experience building, managing and/or overseeing relationships across multiple organizations to deliver a service/product.

The US Department of Education (ED) solicits reviewers without regard to race, color, national origin, gender, age or disability.

ED will provide reasonable accommodations for a qualified individual with a disability so that individual might participate in the review process.