

THE SECRETARY OF EDUCATION
WASHINGTON, DC 20202

January 2023

On behalf of President Biden, First Lady Dr. Jill Biden, and all of us at the U.S. Department of Education, I want to share our congratulations on receiving the 2023 President's Education Award.

For 40 years, this program has honored millions of students for their exceptional educational achievement and contributions to their school communities, and you are now among this special group of awardees. Your hard work and commitment to your learning—even and especially over the challenges of the last year—have helped you achieve this recognition. It's a privilege for me to join your family, friends, educators, and school leaders in celebrating you.

Your talents, interests, skills, and background are all your superpowers. Continue to share them, and you'll make a powerful, positive impact on your community and our world. You'll also honor all those people who supported you along your learning journey.

I look forward to seeing the great things you'll continue to achieve. All my best wishes on your future success in your academic career and beyond!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Miguel A. Cardona".

Miguel A. Cardona, Ed.D.
U.S. Secretary of Education