The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window. The address bar displays the URL: http://marylandpublicschools.org/MSDE/programs/race_to_the_top/rttt_videos. The browser's title bar reads "Race to the Top - Videos - Windows Internet Explorer".

A left-hand navigation menu is titled "MSDE Home" and lists various program categories, including "Programs", "ARRA", "Awards and Recognition", "BRAC / Military Families", "Bridge to Excellence", "Charter Schools", "Common Core State Standards", "Environmental Programs", "Equity Assurance", "ESOL/Title III", "Family Literacy", "Financial Literacy", "GED", "Gifted and Talented", "Homeless Education Assistance", "Maryland Skills2Compete", "Minority Achievement", "Multicultural Education", "No Child Left Behind", and "Parent Involvement".

The main content area is titled "Programs" and features a sub-section "Race to the Top - Videos". It lists two video segments:

- Support for Struggling Schools, March 7, 2011: Accompanied by a video thumbnail of a man speaking. Below the thumbnail is a Windows QuickTime logo.
- Great Teachers & Great Leaders, February 11, 2011: Accompanied by a video thumbnail of a woman speaking.

Below the video thumbnails, there is a paragraph of text: "In the fifth segment of a special Race to the Top series, Ass't. State Sup't Ann Chafin talks briefly about the issues surrounding help for struggling schools."

The browser's status bar at the bottom shows "Internet | Protected Mode: On", a zoom level of "100%", and the system clock displaying "7:59 PM 5/18/2012". The Windows taskbar at the very bottom contains icons for various applications, including Internet Explorer, Firefox, and several Microsoft Office programs.
