SCHOOL-HOME LINKS / BOOK LINKS

Child’s name ____________________________________

Dear Family, Your child is learning to remember when events happen in a story.

• Read a book with your family. Write the title and author below.

Title: __________________________________________

Author: _________________________________________

• What was the first thing that happened in the story?

________________________________________________

________________________________________________

• Write about what happened in the middle.

________________________________________________

________________________________________________

• Write about what happened in the end.

________________________________________________

Child’s signature ______________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature ____________________

1/Answers Simple Comprehension Questions/4