Dear Family, Your child is learning new words from reading.

- Read a book with your family.
- Choose some words from the book that are new to you.
- Copy them down. Then tell why they are interesting.

Interesting Word___________________________________
I picked this word because_________________________
__________________________________________

Interesting Word___________________________________
I picked this word because_________________________
__________________________________________

Interesting Word___________________________________
I picked this word because_________________________
__________________________________________

Child’s name ______________________________________

Child’s signature __________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature _______________

1/Reading Vocabulary of 300-500 Words/4