Dear Family, Your child is learning to follow two-step directions.

- Think about a story you read or heard in school today.
- Do these 2 things:

1. Tell someone in your family about the story you heard.
2. Write two things you remember most about the story.

________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________

Child’s signature ________________________________
Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature ________________

1/Follows Directions/1