Child’s name __________________________________________

Dear Family, Your child is learning that books talk about things that can happen in his or her own family.

- Read a book with your family. Write the title and author below.

  Title: __________________________________________

  Author: _________________________________________

- Do you think the person in the story is like you? Why?

  __________________________________________________

  __________________________________________________

  __________________________________________________

  __________________________________________________

  __________________________________________________

  __________________________________________________

  __________________________________________________

Child’s signature ______________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature ____________________

1/Reads and Comprehends at Grade Level/4