Dear Family, Your child is learning to remember information from books.

- Read a book with your family. Write the title and author below.

Title: ____________________________________________

Author: _________________________________________

- Go to your classroom, school, or local library.
- Find a book you would like to read.
- Ask your family to help you check it out.
- Read the book with your family.
- Write 2 things you remember most about the book.

________________________________________________

________________________________________________

________________________________________________

________________________________________________

________________________________________________

Child’s signature ________________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature ________________________