Dear Family, Your child is learning to guess what will happen in a story.

• Read a book with your family. Write the title and author below.

Title: ________________________________________________

Author: ______________________________________________

• When you get to the middle of the book, stop and ask the following question:

   What do you think will happen in the rest of the story?

   __________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________

• Now read the rest of the story.
• Was your guess about what would happen right?

____________________________________________________

Child’s signature ________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature ________________

1/Predicts What Happens Next/1