Child’s name ______________________________________

Dear Family, Your child is learning to listen for good reading of books and stories. Please read this page to your child.

• Pick out a book and name the title and author.

Title: ____________________________________________

Author: __________________________________________

• Listen to a story your family will read out loud to you. Then answer the questions below.

• What do you notice about the way words sound when someone is reading out loud?

• Does the reader say the words one after another as if they were speaking to you? Or do they say one word, wait, then say another word?

• What did you learn from hearing the story read out loud?

Child’s signature ______________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature _________________

K/Listens Attentively to Books Read /1