Child's name _____

Dear Family, Your child is learning to put two sounds together to make a new sound.

Each letter has at least one sound. Sometimes you can put two letters together and make a new sound.

Example:

c + h = "ch" as in cheat

t + h = "th" as in think s + h = "sh" as in shop

- Read the following silly sentences.
- Circle the two letters that make a new sound. Write the two letters on the lines.

Cheat Chuckie choked on cheseburgers. c h

Shy Sharon shivered in the shade. _____ _____

Thad thought of thirteen things to think about. _____ _____

- More Fun: What sound does a train make? Write this word. Circle the two letters that make this new sound.
