Dear Family, Your child is learning about prefixes.

- A prefix is a word part that comes at the beginning of the word. Prefixes can help us learn the meanings of words.

Un- is a prefix. It means "not".

Look how the prefix un- changes the meaning of this sentence:

I am able to read this book.

I am unable to read this book.

- Can you change the meaning of the following sentence by adding the prefix un-?

She tied her shoes.

- Change this sentence by adding the prefix un-.

I locked the door.
