Dear Family, Your child is learning to write down ideas before writing.

- You are going to write a story about your favorite place to play. Before you begin to write, answer these questions:

1. Where will your story take place?

2. What would be a good way to start your story?

3. What would be a good way to end your story?

4. What should come in the middle of your story?

5. What do you think you will name your story?

- Use the back of this paper to write your story.
