Dear Family, Your child is learning about a special book called an autobiography.

There are many kinds of books to read. An autobiography is the true story of a person’s life, written by the person himself or herself.

- On the lines below, write A for autobiography, B for biography, or N for neither.

Child’s name ______________________________________

Child’s signature ______________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature ______________________________

3/Demonstrates Familiarity with Different Types of Text/5