Dear Family, Your child is learning to read new words by asking, “Does this word make sense here?” and “Does it sound right?”

- Ask yourself these questions when figuring out new words while reading:

  “Does the word make sense here?”
  “Does it sound right?”
  “Does it look right?”

- Try reading and understanding (making sense of) these sentences.

1. The puppy is a young dog.
2. The ocean is big, blue, and has waves.
3. A person who fixes your teeth is a dentist.
4. You need money to buy a car.

Child’s name ______________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature _______________