A prefix is a word part that comes at the beginning of a word. Prefixes can help us figure out the meanings of words we don’t know. The prefix dis- means “not.”

- Look at how dis- changes the meaning of the words in these sentences.

  I trust him.
  I distrust him.

  She is honest.
  She is dishonest.

- Change these sentences by adding the prefix dis- to the underlined words. Rewrite the sentences.

  1. The teacher liked my answer.

     _______________________________________________________

  2. The ghost appeared on the stairs.

     _______________________________________________________

- Write some sentences of your own using words that begin with dis-. Use the back of this paper. Read your sentences out loud to your family.
