Dear Family, Your child is learning to revise his or her writing to improve information, order of ideas, and style.

- Ask your family to help you come up with some topics you can write about. Look over the list of topics. Which one is the most interesting to you? __________________________
- Write about the topic using the back of this paper or another piece of paper.
- When you are finished, read your writing out loud to your family.
- Ask your family to help you answer these questions:
  1. Is there some important information you left out? ________________________________________________________
  2. Is something out of place? ________________________________________________________
  3. Did you start right? ___________________________________________________________________________________
  4. Did you end right? ___________________________________________________________________________________
  5. Did you use different kinds of sentences? ________________

- Rewrite some of your sentences if you need to.
- How does your writing sound? Can people understand it? ______

Add it now.

Try moving it to a new spot.

Make sure your opening sentence is interesting to the reader.

Make sure you end with the most important thing you want the reader to know or feel.

Child’s signature__________________________________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature ____________________________________

3/Edits and Revises Writing/4