Dear Family, Your child is learning to write letters.

- Spend 5 or 10 minutes with your family talking about three things you would like to do next week.
- Write a letter to your family describing your plans.

___________________
(Date)

Dear Family,

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

_________________________________________________________

With love,

Child’s signature __________________________________________

Parent’s (Learning Partner’s) signature ________________________

3/Produces a Variety of Written Works - Letter/1