Child’s name ______________________________________

Dear Family, Your child is learning to guess what will happen in a book before reading and check after reading.

• Read a book with your family. Write the title, author, and chapter(s) below.

Title: _____________________________________________________
Author: __________________________________________________
Chapter(s): ______________________________________________

You are going to make predictions about your book.
A prediction is a good guess about what will happen.
• Look through the chapter of your book before you read it with your family, and draw two columns on the back of this paper.
• On the left side of the page, write the heading Predictions. Before you read the chapter, write what you think will happen in the chapter(s) in the Predictions column.
• On the right side of the page, write the heading Reactions.
• After you finish reading the chapter(s), write what actually happened in the chapter(s) and what you thought of it in the Reactions column.
• How did making predictions help you understand the chapter(s) better?
